MARINES LAND AT WONSAN TO SPUR FINAL PUSH

Leathernecks Hit Beaches Of Captured Port While ROK Forces Near Border

SEOUL, Thursday, Oct. 26 (AP)—U. S. Marines today swarmed ashore at captured Wonsan on the east coast of North Korea in a surprise operation in what appears to be the last phase of the war.

South Koreans far to the west struck to within 20 miles of the Manchurian border in their drive to complete the occupation of all North Korea.

Eighth Army reports said enemy resistance had all but vanished. They predicted the Koreans would be at the border by the end of the day.

The leathernecks hit the beaches at Wonsan unopposed. The city had been captured and occupied earlier by South Korean troops.

The first waves ashore were from the veteran First Marine division, the same unit that stormed the beaches at the start of the Inchon invasion Sept. 15.

A field dispatch said they were but the vanguard of a 50,000-man force which was coming ashore to back up the swift South Korean drive up the east coast toward the Manchurian border.

The rest of the First Marine division and the U. S. Seventh Infantry division were standing offshore waiting to land.

* * *

THE MARINES are scheduled to move 50 miles northward to the Hamhung area on the coast, the field report said. The Seventh division will swing northeast of Hamhung up the coast to back up South Korean divisions heading for the Korean-Manchurian frontier.

The landings were planned originally for six days ago but they were delayed while minesweepers cleared a channel through a field of approximately 1000 mines. Navy officials in Washington have told a congressional committee that the mines are Russian-made.

Also waiting to go ashore with the leathernecks were two battalions of South Korean marines.

In Western Korea, reports to U. S. Eighth Army headquarters said elements of the South Korean Sixth division smashed to Kojan, 70 miles from Chosan on th Korean-Manchurian border.

Kojan is about 50 miles southwest of Manpojin, where U. S. prisoners of war were reportedly taken by their North Korean captors.

Call Aggression 'Gravest' Crime, West Asks U. N.

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 25 (AP)—The United States and five other nations today called on the U.N. assembly to brand open or fifth column aggression as "the gravest of all crimes against peace and security throughout the world."

The proposal was introduced into the assembly's political committee as the Western answer to a Soviet "peace" plan asking for armaments reduction and the branding as a war criminal the first government to use the atom bomb.

Sponsored by Britain, France, Lebanon, Mexico and The Netherlands as well as the United States, the resolution was put before the 60-nation committee shortly after Australia's Percy C. Spender upheld the use of the atom bomb against aggressors.

"The way of the aggressor has got to be made hard," the Australian foreign minister told the committee. "The most heinous crime against humanity is the crime of aggression and the use of the atom bomb against aggression is not a crime."

The joint Western resolution asked the assembly to reaffirm that "whatever the weapons used, any aggression, whether committed openly or by fomenting civil strife, is the gravest of all crimes against peace and security throughout the world."

Introduced by Netherlands Delegate Dr. G. J. Van Heuven Goedhart, it also called upon every nation to accept effective international control of atomic energy on the basis already approved by the U.N.

THE WEATHER

For Eastern Pennsylvania: Mostly sunny today, with high temperature between 56 and 60 degrees. Some frost likely tonight. Increasing cloudiness tomorrow, with milder in the afternoon.

Contradiction Charged In Firehouse Site Fight

By HARRY G. TOLAND
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Some North End Fire company officials who are backing construction of the company firehouse on a residentially-zoned corner of Prospect and Evans streets fought proposed construction of a shopping center in the North End three months ago, it was charged last night.

Sam H. Keiser, who lives at 874 North Franklin street, a block from the controversial site, said a few company officials were showing contradictory attitudes on the two questions.

"They were fighting the shopping center of North Charlotte street, but they are in favor of this. It indicates they have the good of only themselves, not the North End, at heart," he said.

Keiser said he had opposed construction of the center, to be bounded by Charlotte, Spruce and Grace streets and Lee avenue, even though he lived several blocks away.

"I felt—and I still feel—that the North End should be a residential section and not a business section," the auto dealer said. "I love this section of town and I hate to see it change."

Keiser, who has lived at his present home for 21 years, admitted the necessity of fire companies. But, he argued, a "more open place" could have been selected.

* * *

H. LEWIS WILLIAMS, who lives on the southeast corner of Prospect and Evans streets, last night issued a prepared statement as his comment on the matter. It stated:

"My feelings in the affair are quite similar to those of my neighbors with respect to the proposed location of the North End firehouse, social quarters and grounds at Prospect and Evans streets.

"We have purchased homes in this attractive residential area of the North End and we have understood under the zoning code that the area under consideration is a restricted residential section.

"It does not seem right or just that property owners in the vicinity be required to suffer certain depreciation in the present value of their homes.

"There are areas in the North End that are not developed and it would seem a considerate and reasonable thing for the company to acquire such an area and not depreciate one of the few strictly residential areas in the borough."

Williams, manager of the local Bethlehem Steel company plant, has lived at the location for the past 16 years.

* * *

TO ALLOW THE company to build on the spot, a special exception will have to be granted by the board of adjustment following a public hearing. The area is zoned as strictly residential.

Municipal-type buildings—such as firehouses—may be named as exceptions to the zoning, however.

To date, the company has not filed application for the hearing with Borough Building Inspector Arthur S. Kepner. Carl M. Binder, attorney for the company, said last night the application would be filed soon.

At that meeting neighborhood protests may be aired.

An option on the lot, measuring 140 by 372 feet, was obtained from Builder Warren B. Zern, North Charlotte street. An unfavorable verdict by the adjustment board would negate the deal, Binder said.

* * *

THE NORTH END controversy has echos of two recent and similiar disputes in the borough.

Most recent was the proposal of Gordon R. Exley 2nd, local contractor, to build the 24-store shopping center on North Charlotte street. This, too would have required zoning changes.

This affair was first aired at the July borough council meeting and then thrashed out at a joint meeting of council, the planning and zoning commission and 15 irate citizens.

The citizens complained that the center would bring traffic hazards and property devaluation. In the end, council, on the advice of commission, rejected the proposal. This was the squabble to which Keiser referred.

Congress Call Before Election Is Considered

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Congressional sources said tonight President Truman is thinking of issuing a pre-election call to Congress to hurry back to Washington after the balloting and work on rent control and other legislation.

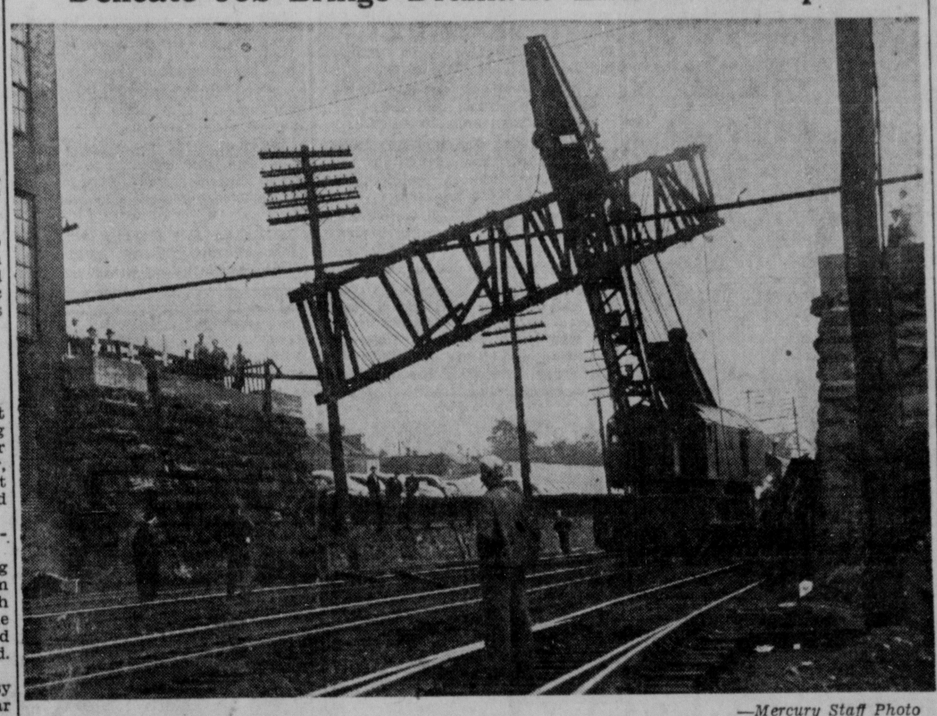

The plan reported under consideration calls for Congress to reconvene Nov. 15—eight days after the election—instead of Nov. 27, the date previously fixed.

If the President makes up his mind to take the step, those in the know expect him to announce it in advance of the Nov. 7 election. He holds his weekly news conference tomorrow morning, but whether the announcement will be ready then as not known tonight.

Two different sources, who cannot be named, informed a reporter that the special call to Congress has been under consideration at the White House. They said Mr. Truman wanted to take counsel with Democratic leaders of Senate and

The crisis is reached in the removal of the six-ton timbered truss that formed the east side of the ancient Washington street bridge across the Reading company tracks. The 250-ton crane is steadying the truss so that it won't break the gas line running overhead or snap any of the wires nearby. The gap between the stone abutments is where the new steel bridge will be built.

* * * * * * * *

Last Trusses Torn From Rail Bridge

Demolition of the old Washington street bridge across the Reading company railroad tracks was completed yesterday with the removal of two six-ton, timber trusses — a delicate operation requiring a score of men and a huge railroad crane.

C. C. Klingaman, Reading, a master carpenter in charge of the railroad's operation, said that the bridge probably would be completed within three weeks.

The first job to be done, he said, will be setting up a walk that pedestrians can use while the remaining work proceeds.

The ancient bridge has been closed to motor traffic by a Public Utility commission order since Sept. 27, 1948. Demolition began about six weeks ago, with a foot walk remaining in place until the demolition neared an end.

The trickiest part of yesterday morning's work was the removal of the six-ton truss that formed the east side of the bridge. It was taken down after the west side had been pulled away by the 250-ton railroad crane, part of a work train of five cars and a locomotive.

Close by the west side was a thick gas line running to Doehler-Jarvis corporation's plant. There also were electric and telephone wires that could have been snapped if the truss had gotten out of control.

* * *

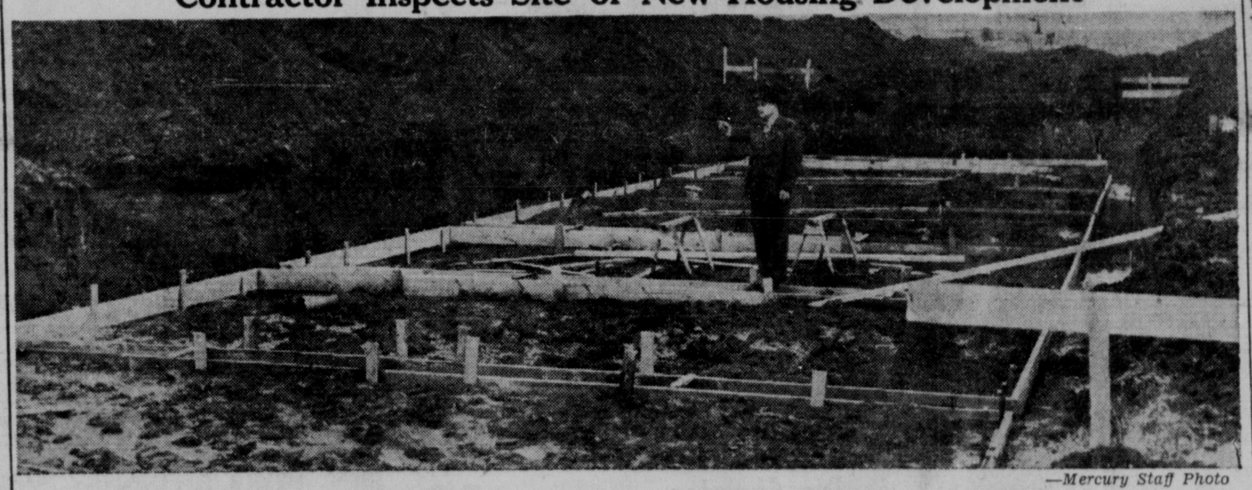

WORKMEN WON "Oh's" from the small crowd by straddling the top of the east truss to fasten the thick chains from the crane hook. The supporting timbers were pulled away and the crane tugged the truss from its roots.

By deft maneuvering, the truss was kept from swinging enough to break the pipes or wires, and the truss was lowered slowly against the south side of the bridge's stone abutments.

A half dozen sturdy timbers from the truss dropped onto the tracks while the crane was lifting the truss, but no one was underneath at the time.

Building of the new steel bridge was the subject of a long legal wrangle, which finally saw the PUC order the Reading company to pay 50 percent of the estimated $25,600 cost; Pottstown 25 percent and Montgomery county 25 percent.

VOTING RECORD OF GOP FOE HIT BY MACMULLEN

McConnell Has Opposed Welfare Legislation, Demo Candidate Tells PAC Here

By EDWARD B. ROSENBERG
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Leon C. MacMullen, Democratic candidate for the U. S. House of Representatives, declared last night that his Republican opponent has voted consistently against the general welfare.

Speaking in CIO hall before 61 workers of the CIO Political Action committee, MacMullen said bluntly of Rep. Samuel K. McConnell Jr.:

"I can truthfully tell you that this reactionary congressman has diverted and delayed, impeded and obstructed every legislative measure of benefit to our people, ever since he has held office. He cannot point to a single, solitary constructive achievement in his entire political career."

McConnell, seeking re-election to the House of Representatives, had defended his 6½-year voting record in a talk Tuesday night at a GOP rally in the Moose home. He said then that he had supported legislation favorable to labor and in the national interest.

* * *

MOST OF MacMullen's speech last night was given over to an attack on McConnell's record. The Pottstown furniture store proprietor also stressed the importance of PAC activity in the Nov. 7 election.

MacMullen declared, "In this morning's paper my opponent claims that I am ignorant of his voting record. Well, he will be surprised to learn that I have an official record of his actions during his entire career."

Summarizing, the Democratic congressional candidate said that McConnell had voted against:

Taft-Hartley repeal, minimum wages, low cost housing, anti-trust laws, military aid to European countries, increased profits tax, European recovery program, FEPC with enforcement, price controls, aid to Korea, mutual defense act of 1949, rent control, wage-hour amendments, public power plants, soldiers' vote bill, increased military appropriations "and even the appointment of George Marshall as secretary of defense."

* * *

EMPHASIZING THAT he wished to be fair, MacMullen added:

"It is true that he supported the Doughton bill (broadening Social Security coverage and increasing the benefits), and it is true that he supported two bills for limited edu-

NAVY VETERAN NAMED PASTOR

Pughtown Baptist Church Elects Thomas Gibbony To Replace Rev. Button

Pughtown Baptist church last night elected Thomas Gibbony, 25-year-old seminary student and Navy veteran, as its pastor.

The call was issued at a meeting of 50 church members held in the church.

He will replace the Rev. Lewis Button who resigned Aug. 1 because the congregation refused to accept his proposal of withdrawing from the Northern Baptist convention, an organization of some 9300 Baptist churches.

His successor has served for the past two years as pastor of the East Newmarket, Md., Baptist church while continuing studies at Eastern Baptist seminary, Philadelphia.

* * *

HE ENROLED in the seminary shortly after his discharge from the Navy in September, 1945, and has completed the four-year college requirement there. The past June he began the two-year divinity course.

For 11 months of his two-year Navy tour, he served in the South Pacific on the troop transport U.S.S. Eastland. He was discharged a yeoman 2/c.

Both Gibbony and his wife, Betty, are natives of Cincinnati, Ohio, and graduates of that city's Norwood High school. The couple has a six months old daughter, Linda.

The young pastor, who preached two "trial" sermons at the Pughtown church, will officially start his duties at Sunday's morning worship. He and his family will move into the parsonage within a week, it was believed.

Legion Home Group To Elect Directors

Three past commanders of George A. Amole Post 47, American Legion, will be among the candidates for directors of the home association at tomorrow's election.

They are Earl F. Newton, an incumbent director, William A. O'Donnell Jr. and William H. Yohn. Two other candidates are J. Harold Giles and Elmer Haas.

Voting for 2 directors will take place in the Legion home between 1 and 8 p. m.

The two directors elected tomorrow will serve for three years on the board of directors of the Legion home association. There are 11 members on the board.

After the directors are chosen, the association's annual meeting will be held at 8:30 p. m. The directors will elect the home association president, vice president, secretary and treasurer.

Incumbent president is George Lappas.

Program Secretary Of State 'Y' to Speak At Chest Luncheon

Harvie J. Boorman, program secretary of the State Young Men's Christian association, will speak at the first report luncheon of the Community chest campaign at 12:10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the YMCA.

Boorman, who is in charge of recruiting and placement of Association secretaries and of public relations for the State office, will be introduced by James F. Baird, local YMCA secretary.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin, he took postgraduate courses at the University of Chicago and George Williams college, a YMCA institution in Chicago.

He previously served as assistant program secretary of the Chicago Metropolitan YMCA staff and as an instructor and director of field work at George Williams college.

Boorman will also speak at a district meeting of YM secretaries at

Probe of Red Plot In Philippines Aided By Yank Officers

MANILA, Oct. 25 (AP)—Four U. S. Army officers are helping in an investigation of an alleged Filipino Communist plot to seize power, a Philippines army source said today.

The source reported the four were helping to check seized documents and were also taking part in the questioning of some of the 93 Filipinos still held after large-scale raids last week.

The Communist problem is considered so grave that President Elpidio Quirino suspended the writ of habeas corpus in subversive cases.

Quirino Tuesday gave military and civilian authorities power to hold subversive suspects longer than the legal limit of six hours without filing charges.

He issued the order after national defense officers raided Communist party headquarters in Manila Oct. 18 and found—among many documents—a purported Red plan for seizing the government next year.

The plan, the Defense department said, called for training a 116,000-man Communist-indoctrinated army to overthrow the government.

Project of 80 Homes To Go Up in East End

An 80-home project in Pottstown's East End was announced yesterday by Stanley. Swinehart, Pottstown contractor for the past 30 years.

The homes will be built along Sunrise lane, west of Firestone boulevard. Building will start near Sunrise lane and Maple street and will move northward.

The project will be divided into groups of eight homes. The first group, for which the cellars have been dug, should be completed in April, Swinehart said, and all of the 80 finished by late Summer.

Most of the houses will be of cement block, plastered, with a few brick ones. They will be two and three-bedroom homes.

The homes, just inside the borough's eastern boundary, will have all services that the borough furnishes, Swinehart asserted. He said the homes would be in the "medium-low" price bracket.

Swinehart, who lives at 737 Walnut street, went into the contracting business when he was 24 years old, working his way up.

He estimated that he has built more than 500 homes in the borough during his career, most of them in the section known as Rosemont in the East End.

Dilworth to Speak Here Tomorrow

Richardson Dilworth, Democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, will speak in Pottstown tomorrow night on High street between Hanover and Penn streets at 6:30 o'clock.

Dilworth's curbside speech will mark the first visit here by either party's candidate for the top State post in the current campaign.

GOP Candidate James H. Duff, seeking to depose Myers in the Senate, and John S. Fine, stumping for Governor, have not made appearances in Pottstown.

Speedway Driver Pays Fine, Costs on Disorderly Count

Carl L. "Monk" Kellar, 925 Washington street, a Sanatoga Speedway driver, paid $13.50 in fine and costs yesterday afternoon on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The 10-minute hearing was held in borough hall by Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley, of the Second ward.

Kelley also told the young racer that he would receive summonses for reckless driving and for driving without tail lights.

Kellar was booked on the disorderly conduct charge early Tuesday morning when he protested the reckless driving charge, filed by Patrolman Harry Chrusch.

Kellar told the justice of the peace yesterday that he had not been given permission to call his friends or family for bail. He remained in a borough hall cell for several hours on Tuesday until $20 bail was posted.

Kelley offered to continue the hearing until the officers involved could appear to testify, but Kellar declined the offer and paid the $13.50.

Eyes Pop as Bunny Bounces Into Town

Maybe the bunnies are getting hep now that hunting season is just around the corner.

Anyhow, a wild rabbit was noted scurrying up South Hanover street toward High street last night at 10:30 o'clock.

The animal was observed by George Brockerman Jr., of Perklomenville, and Lewis Frey, 1 West Fourth street, as they were leaving the Reading company concourse in an automobile.

"And, it was a good sized rabbit, too," Brockerman asserted in a voice that sounded as if he was visioning rabbit stew.

U. S. Threat to Veto Successor to Lie Forces Deadlock in Security Council

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 25—(AP)—Faced by an American threat to veto any other candidate, the deadlocked Security council decided tonight to tell the General assembly it is unable to decide on a successor for United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie.

Russia's Jacob A. Malik immediately served notice he will demand the council try once again before giving the assembly implicit authority to extend Lie's term.

The U. S. is determined to keep Lie in office because of his wholehearted support of the Korean war; Russia wants to throw him out for the same reason.

Malik also told the council today that, besides the Korean issue, he opposed Lie because the U. N. official had a quarrel with Prime Minister Stalin during his trip to Moscow last Spring.

Stalin asked Lie to make some changes in a proposed 20-point peace plan. Malik said, in order to eliminate what the Soviet leader called its "pro-American bias." Lie refused.

The plan suggested settling of outstanding East-West differences, largely through periodic high-level meetings.

Malik did not explain why Stalin considered the plan pro-American. It was denounced last Spring by the American press as Soviet inspired.

Eager Draft Board Zips Card to Four-Year-Old

The Albany county draft board classified Billy as 4-A, meaning he had seen previous service.

Billy's daddy served in World War II and he received his 4-A card several months ago.

As for Billy, he loudly declared: "I don't wanna go in the Army."

Unlit Headlamp Is Blamed For Early Morning Crash

An unlit headlight was blamed for an accident early yesterday on Route 422, a mile east of Pottstown.

Collegeville State police, who investigated, said a 1937 sedan operated by Winfield Heckrote, 18, Birdsboro RD 2, was going west at 12:15 o'clock with one of its headlights out.

Robert L. Fulmer, 25, Main street, Spring City, driving his 1946 coupe east, was unable to judge the other car's approach because of the missing light. Fulmer also told police that Heckrote's car had been far toward the middle of the highway.

Heckrote's car had slight damage to its left rear fender. The left front and rear fenders of Fulmer's car were damaged. No one was injured.

NPA Readies Curbs on Steel, Aluminum And Building Materials to Aid Defense

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—The government prepared tonight to go into the second phase of its drive to control production in the interest of national defense. The target now is specific products.

In the first six weeks of its life the National Production authority (NPA) was concerned mostly with general orders requiring industry to give priority to defense orders and banning hoarding of scarce materials.

Now a new series of important orders concerning steel, building materials and aluminum will start coming out of NPA, probably beginning tomorrow.

In preparation for that move, aluminum fabricators met today with NPA officials and vigorously objected to proposed government methods of cutting the civilian use of aluminum. The industry proposed that any curbs on use of the metal be applied by the industry itself on a voluntary basis.

Representatives of the construction industry have taken a similar line but it looked as though the NPA were about to overrule the builders—at least with respect to building amusement places.

* * *

NPA OFFICIALS said the following orders are definitely "in the works.":

1. Drastic curbs on the building of such things as race tracks, amuse-

French Guns, Planes Hammer Vietminh as Key Battle Looms

SAIGON, Vietnam, Indo-China, Oct. 25 (AP)—French army sources reported today the blasting of Communist-led Vietminh concentrations east of Laokay by French artillery and warplanes. This appeared to mean the opening of a battle for Laokay, the last French bastion on the northwest frontier.

A communique said French patrols had found Vietminh forces only five miles from Laokay, on the Red river adjoining Communist China's Yunnan province. French batteries then shelled the Vietminh, Nationalist followers of the Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh.

The Laokay garrison dug in. A French military spokesman announced the abandonment of Laokay's principal outpost, at Muongkhuong. He said the small garrison at that point, 18 miles northeast of Laokay, withdrew toward the main post.

The French, who have lost a half dozen frontier posts to the Vietminh in the last two months of a four-year-old war, are removing civilians by air to Hanoi, the provincial capital of North Indo-China, 150 miles southeast of Laokay.

8458 Nabbed in Seoul as Red Suspects; Half Later Released, Officials Report

By BILL SHINN

SEOUL, Oct. 25 (AP)—South Korean authorities have arrested 8458 persons as Communist suspects in the Seoul area and so far have released nearly half of them, officials said today.

Investigation headquarters of the South Korean army police indicated that many of the Reds on its wanted list got away. It said an unknown number of them fled north.

Among those arrested were about 500 women and scores of Chinese Nationals.

In all, the headquarters report said, 3683 of those picked up were found innocent of collaboration charges and were released.

Of the remainder, 669, were turned over to the Korean military court, 119 to the provost marshal, and 3987 to the Seoul district court.

The report said the military court will handle cases of South Koreans charged with direct assistance to the Red army by giving war information and those charged with murdering South Korean leaders and their families.

* * *

THE PROVOST MARSHAL will hear cases against South Koreans accused of joining the Red army. The Seoul district court will take over lesser cases of collaboration.

Headquarters described the 669 facing military court as determined Communists.

South Koreans who have been loyal to the South Korean government and those described as still having potential loyalty despite unintentional co-operation with the Communists under the occupation were released.

Col. Kim Chang Yong of headquarters said there were "many victims of circumstances."

Asked by this reporter if there had been any executions without trial, Kim declared: "There were no tortures nor such executions."

* * *

(COMMUNIST BROADCASTS have charged there have been wholesale executions in Seoul. These reports never have been confirmed.)

Chief Prosecutor Oh Je Do of headquarters observed that "there is no need of torture because our investigations are made with evidence and carefully-examined documents."

Oh said the accused were allowed to be interviewed and to hire lawyers.

Kim Tai Sun, chief of South Korea's National police, also told me it was not his policy to apply torture during investigations.

He said he wanted to hear from the people all complaints of police torture and "any policeman who has tortured anybody shall be strictly punished."

Thoughts for a Modest Man!

The man you see in the illustration above should own a Cadillac car.

His accomplishments entitle him to it. His income is ample to justify the expenditure. And he has wanted a Cadillac for a long, long time.

But he is an extremely modest man, and he feels that if he purchased a Cadillac, some of his friends might think him ostentatious.

For him, and for all people like him, we should like to record a few simple facts.

First, let us say that we recognize modesty as a basic virtue. The man who doesn't possess it to the proper degree is a bore to his friends and a joy to his enemies.

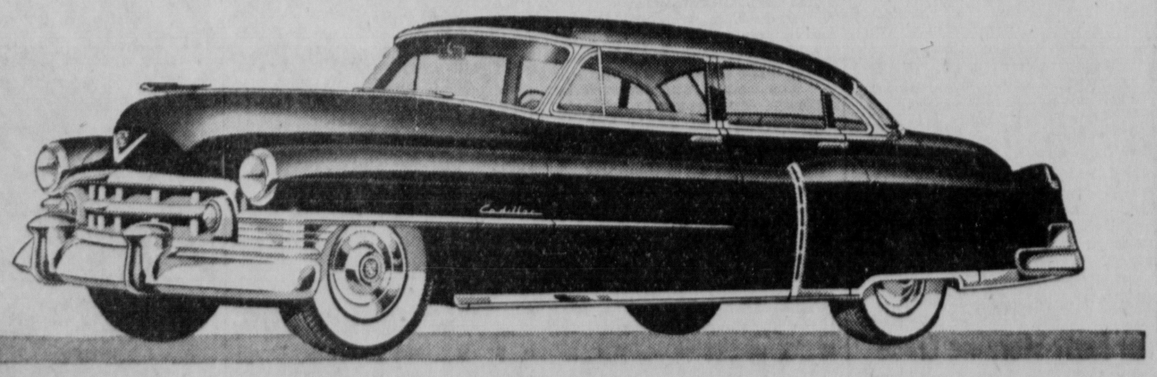

But there is nothing immodest about owning a Cadillac. In fact, there are few more sensible purchases a man can make—if a Cadillac falls within his means.

Relatively, a Cadillac isn't even expensive. There are numerous models of several other makes of cars which cost more than the lower-priced Cadillacs.

Furthermore, the great Cadillac engine is so miserly of gasoline that a single tankful will usually suffice for a whole day's drive.

And when it comes to long life and endurance—well, few people drive far enough in a whole lifetime to invalidate this wonderful car.

So if you are entitled to a Cadillac, don't let modesty stand in your way. Modesty ceases to be a virtue when it deprives a man of his just reward.

U. S., Canada to Ink Pact Setting Up New Joint Economy Plan

OTTAWA, Oct. 25 (AP) — Canada and the United States will sign tomorrow a new set of economic principles for the joint co-ordination of their economies in the development of defense production.

Trade Minister C. D. Howe left by private plane tonight to participate in the ceremony at Washington.

An exchange of notes by officials of the two countries will formally signal approval of the principles — still undisclosed — which are expected to pave the way for unprecedented joint economic co-operation.

Described by officials as a peacetime version of a wartime agreement, the note likely will indicate that all restrictions on the flow of arms between the two countries should be eased or elimiated.

* * *

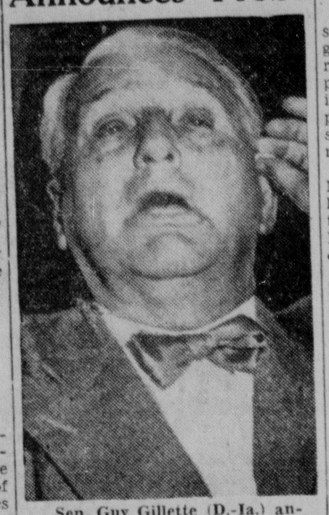

IT WILL MEAN that the United States will agree to the complete elimination of the restrictive buy-American act of 1934, which forbids U. S. fighting forces from purchasing from other countries defense materials which are available in the United States.

The principles also likely will call for joint control over priorities and allocations of scarce materials to make certain that defense projects in both countries are given equal treatment.

This will mean that armament producers in Canada will get the same priority rating as would American producers for materials in both countries.

Canadian raw materials would not be for Canadian manufacturers or consumers, alone. It will be share-and-share alike as far as allocations are concerned.

Who is "Sacrificing" What?

Practically everyone in a high position in the government has felt it necessary to stress the need for sacrifices on the part of the people. Thus, the President recently said, "The farmer, the wage earner and the businessman must be satisfied to work more for the good of all and to make a little less for himself.

"In return, your government will do its utmost to see that the necessary sacrifices are equally shared and that the common effort brings the maximum return in world strength for the cause of freedom."

Those are splendid words. But the fact remains that many men in the government seem to have a warped idea of what sharing sacrifice involves.

A relative few are really making sacrifices now. Those who fought in Korea have sacrificed. Those who died there made the ultimate sacrifice. The young men who are being called from home and school and the beginnings of careers into the armed services have a right to speak of sacrifice, for they are examples of it.

The rest of us are not sacrificing anything. We are paying higher taxes, it is true—but that is simply an unpleasant burden, not a sacrifice. We are living well, and we are following our daily routines pretty much in the normal manner.

And our government officials, sad to relate, seem determined to sacrifice nothing.

The record speaks for itself. Men in top positions—in the face of the tremendous military emergency that has been forced upon us—continues spending-as-usual in all directions.

It is one thing to talk easily of sacrifice. It is another to actually make a few sacrifices, no matter how mild they may be.

So far the service men and their families are the only ones who sacrifice.

When will the politicians set some sort of an example in government?

Go to the Ballot Box

THE BALLOT box stands between a free people and enslavement. The right to vote is the strongest defense we have against oppression.

Few people will deny this. Yet huge numbers of Americans, who regard themselves as good and patriotic citizens, fail to take advantage of their greatest privilege.

In local elections, it is common for less than half of the eligible voters to go to the polling booths. Even in national elections, in which men are running for the highest offices, and in which issues and principles of the utmost moment are at stake, millions of us don't vote.

The result, of course, is government by minority—there is no way to measure the views and opinions of the man who fails to exercise the right of franchise. Government of the people is possible only when the people make their stand known—and that can be done only at the ballot box.

In a short time there will be another election of great importance. The control of Congress will be decided. The Presidential campaign of 1952 will be strongly influenced by what happens this November. Policies which will determine the future of the nation, for good or ill, will be established. The majority will rule, as usual. But the true voice of the majority can never be known if again, as in the past, millions of people who possess the right to vote shirk their duty and responsibility.

Study the candidates and the issues. Make up your mind as to which of them, in your opinion, can do the most to keep this country strong, solvent and free. And then vote.

For a Socialist Botany

Peanuts in East Africa threw the British Socialist government for a loss of $64,000,000 in four years and the projected three million acre goober ranch has been cut to 12,000 acres. After peanuts played the British Socialists false, sunflowers were tried this year—net loss $1,340,000.

What the comrades need is something that will plant itself like a good nutritious ragweed. Surely Prof. Lysenko and his school of Marxist biologists should be able to evolve a fine edible Marxist ragweed to save the day for Socialism. We might find something like that useful for Truman's Point 4 too.

Readers Pen Views on Rail Crossing 'Bottlenecks'

He's Experienced Tie-Up

Several times since the gates were installed I have been traveling west on the Schuylkill road and have had to wait for a full ten minutes to cross Route 100. Cars lined up from the crossing gate had blocked the intersection.

Something should be done, that's sure.

Maybe a light could be installed at this intersection to function automatically with the gates, warning drivers not to cross.

'Bug' in Concourse System

To the Editor: The traffic signal that has been installed at the exit of the Reading concourse on South Hanover street doesn't do much good.

Once I noticed a policeman warn several drivers who had gone beyond the signal when the railroad gates were down. But then it was too late. The path of the cars coming out of the concourse already had been blocked and the bumper-to-bumper traffic prevented the violators from backing up.

It wouldn't hurt to put up a large sign on the traffic light saying: "Do not pass the light when signal is red." I know everyone is supposed to know that, but apparently they don't.

Stowe CHARLIE

Pleased With School Plans

To the Editor: I was quite interested in your recent story of the North Coventry school board's plan for a new elementary school building.

The fact that the board has decided to build comes as a welcome note in my family. A boy, 10, and two daughters, 8 and 6, all go to different school buildings. It will be a blessing when all have a chance to study in a school such as is proposed.

Most parents in the township agree with me, I know, that the building program is long overdue. We will cheerfully pay additional taxes to see the project through.

Cedarville FATHER OF THREE

Abuses a Privilege

To the Editor: That guy who wrote the letter about taking charity donations out of taxes ("Wants Charity From Taxes," Readers Say, Oct. 24) must be a die-hard Socialist. They ought to run him out of the country.

This is a free country, where a man's privilege to give as little or as much as he wants to social welfare agencies is still sacred. Let's keep it that way.

I'll give my money to the charitable organization I think is the best and no one will tell me how much or ask why.

Points for Recall

To the Editor: I am a mother of a 25-year old veteran. Some of these young men have gone from high school to war and now are expected to go from college to war. This is a horrible situation.

They should be given every advantage to work in defense work or help in the armed services in this country. But they should be sent overseas only on a point system, with those having the most overseas service to be taken last, regardless of marital status. This is the only fair thing to do.

Pottstown WORRIED MOTHER

Snakes Are Our Allies

To the Editor: There is nothing to be done about it, I suppose, but I wish women would learn not to be frightened of snakes, as the women on West Sixth street were Thursday when the, called the policeman to kill a big blacksnake.

I read somewhere that even a little tiny snake eats thousands and thousands of mosquitoes during its lifetime. Just think what a huge snake like the one that was shot could do.

Next to spurring on the Junior Chamber of Commerce to another season of insect spraying, the best way to get rid of mosquitoes is to leave the snakes alone.

WASHINGTON

Marshall Told to Form Anti-Red Police Force

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—President Truman has instructed National Defense Secretary George C. Marshall to forget military management details at the Pentagon and to concentrate on the organization of an international, anti-Russian police force under the aegis and auspices of the United Nations.

Mr. Truman believes that the diplomatic Virginian is the ideal man for this difficult task. In fact, his qualifications for this chore were an important factor in the White House decision to appoint General Marshall as successor to the well-meaning but blundering Louis A. Johnson.

If anybody can persuade the squabbling and reluctant U. N. member-nations to pool their forces, especially France, in a world army, it is General Marshall. He commands more respect and admiration abroad than any other American military figure, with the possible exception of General Douglas A. MacArthur.

Strange as it may seem, "Ike" Eisenhower runs third to these two warriors. Indeed, there are those who place General Omar N. Bradley in third place, with Columbia's president coming in only fourth.

* * *

FORCE: Neither President Truman nor Secretary Acheson can afford to admit it, but they are deeply disturbed over European nations' slowness and unwillingness to build a powerful, anti-Russian force in Central Europe. Conversations with British and French economic ministers at Washington during the last few days have actually angered the White House.

The British and French want us to finance their forces in Europe. They also want us to promise to keep at least ten divisions, 150,000 men, in that area more or less permanently.

At the same time, Paris rejects for domestic, political reasons the Truman-Acheson-Marshall demand that Western Germans be permitted to raise at least ten divisions for the proposed, international army.

* * *

FORMULA: Mr. Truman knows, and he has so informed the Anglo-French spokesmen, that neither Congress nor the American people will continue to spend billions or to draft manpower for European defense unless they show more sense than they have up to now.

He has, at last, told them that we are interested in rearming Western Europe only because it serves to strengthen the United States—to give us the time for preparation which we had from 1914 to 1917 and from 1939 to 1941.

It will be General Marshall's assignment to sell this idea to the British, French, Dutch etc., and then to work out a specific formula for building an army of at least fifty divisions—750,000 men—to stop the Russians on the Rhine.

* * *

NEGLECTED: Alben W. Barkley now appreciates how Harry S. Truman felt when he was FDR's neglected understudy from January to April of 1945.

President Roosevelt saw Mr. Truman only twice during that period, with the result that the latter was utterly ignorant of domestic or world problems and conditions when he entered the White House. His relative indifference to members of the Hyde Park family derives from this treatment.

Barkley tells friends that he has never been consulted on a single major move by President Truman. He read of the White House decision to intervene in Korea in the newspapers. He was not notified in advance of the Johnson-Marshall shift. He does not know where Mr. Truman plans to go, if and when MacArthur conquers all Korea for the United Nations.

* * *

TROUPER: The "Veep's" plight will be even worse in the next few critical weeks.

Truman-Boyle political strategy requires him, a septuagenarian, to make a back-breaking, political tour through 18 states in order to re-elect a Democratic Congress. He is completely out of touch with the White House, the State department and the Pentagon, although, like Mr. Truman in April of 1945, he stands only a heart-beat from the responsibilities of the presidency.

At a time when he should be at the elbow of President Truman, Secretary Acheson and National Defense Secretary Marshall, he is making one-night stands far from the Capitol as a vote-getting trouper.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

HENRIETTA G., 52, is a housewife from a nearby city.

"Please, Dr. Crane, will you take me as a patient?" she telephoned recently in tones that showed she was unstrung and on the verge of crying.

"I don't know what is wrong with me, but I am upset and nervous. I can't sleep.

"The left side of my face feels numb. And I have pains in the top of my head. Besides, food doesn't agree with me.

"I'm visiting with my daughter now, but want to go back to my own city, though my husband died there last year and I don't know if I can stand it to be alone. I need a lot of medical attention."

* * *

HENRIETTA, though 52, is much like Sheila in Monday's case record. Both women had lost the men whom they loved and upon whom they depended for consolation and advice.

But Sheila was in college with enough outside demands upon her time and attention to keep her in circulation, though she was blue and despondent to the point of contemplated suicide.

Henrietta, however, has leaned upon her husband for affection, counsel and companionship for 35 years, so naturally she is even more bereft than Sheila, who had known her fiance only a year before his death.

But the treatment for both of these women is the usual prescription for menopausal people; namely, extroversion.

They are so self-centered and sorry for themselves, that they must forcibly turn their attention outward and focus it upon other interesting subjects.

Since animate objects hold one's interest better than inanimate, it is wiser to develop a fondness for animals or human beings than to seek relief via music or art.

The first question I asked Henrietta was about her membership in church. Did she attend regularly? I also prescribed at the outset two social engagements per week as the minimum.

These might be attendance at church or a woman's club, a sewing circle or a bridge tea, or even a movie.

"But won't you give me some medicine?" she asked, showing the usual human belief in magic and our desire to let somebody or something else cure us, without any further effort on our own part.

So I gave her medicine, purely for the sake of her peace of mind, for there is no drug that will remedy her real defect, which is the need for solace and affection, companionship and comfort from a man.

I reassured her that she would not lose her mind, which was also one of her big worries, as it usually is in the case of neurotics.

But I browbeat her into taking an active part in the social life of her community under threat that I wouldn't see her again if she ever omitted this vital part of her prescription.

"But I am afraid to go out among people. It makes me nervous and upset," she protested, crying copiously.

Children also cry to avoid the very medicine which produces their cure, however, and so it is with these older patients.

They must do what they don't like, however, for the more lonely they grow, the more they fear their cure, which is people.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN

Has Ups and Downs... Open But Not Open...

★ PLAYBOYS — There's only one thing wrong with that new Community Chest campaign sign on the Security Trust building at High and Hanover streets, said Ben Longaker, Chest co-chairman, yesterday. The boys who hang around the sign run the little man with the feather up and down the sign like a jack-on-a string . . . . Lester "Haps" Basler, Pottstown real estate salesman who went to Kane, icebox of Pennsylvania, for the hayfever season, is back on the main stem. Said this year was first in 25 that he wasn't bedded because of the ailment. . . . Congressman Samuel K. McConnell, Montgomery county lawmaker who spoke here Tuesday, will make another Pottstown appearance Tuesday when he speaks to the Kiwanis club.

* * *

ONE AT A TIME—Reason why the Diecasters club has moved from 254 to the new building at 40-44 High street although the new building is not yet completed is this: The liquor license transfer came through, and it is not permissible for the club to operate two places. So the Diecasters chose the unfinished new club. The new building is being used only informally. No formal opening is scheduled until it's all finished, probably not until the end of next month.

* * *

★ CADET STRIPES—Couple of localads at West Point were promoted to cadet corporal. Football Star V. J. Pollock, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pollock, Linfield, and Robert L. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Russell, 618 Willow street, both juniors at the US Military academy, were awarded chevrons. Pollock hopes to be commissioned in the air force upon his graduation in 1952, Russell in the artillery . . . . Franklin J. Burchfield, 1290 High street, has been made a member of the National Association of Cost Accountants . . . . Phyllis N. Kulp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Rudolph Kulp, Pottstown RD 1, has won a scholarship at Juniata college, where she's a junior. . . . Corp. James Lisenby, son of Mrs. N. A. Lisenby, 549 Spruce street, has written home that he's with the First Marine division in Korea.

VISITOR—Irvin M. Boughter, 555 West street, looked out a window the other morning, saw a five-foot black snake sunning himself atop a hedge. The snake slithered away before a picture could be taken. "Kill him?" echoed Boughter to a questioner. "I should say not? He eats a lot of garden bugs." Boughter is an avid flower raiser. He's first on Washington hill with Spring flowers, last with Fall blooms. . . . "Good Night, Irene" still is first on record-buyers' lists, according to Billboard. "Harbor Lights" is second, "Mona Lisa", third.

★ HOME TOGETHER — A dozen or so members of Pottstown's platoon of Reading Company B, Marine Reserves, came home yesterday morning for a ten-day leave after completing their "boot" training at Parris island, S. C. The young men came home together by the 8:26 a. m. train, were quite a sight with their new uniforms and tanned faces. When leave's up, they'll go to Camp Lejeune, S. C., where the whole company went when it left Pottstown the past July 31. The members who hadn't already had boot training were sent to Parris island.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

AS time goes on we are finding more and more uses for the anti-histamine drugs, originally used only in the treatment of allergic disorders such as hay fever and hives.

Histamine is present in the body at all times but only in small amounts. During an allergic attack, great quantities of this chemical are released to flood the system. In these excessive amounts it produces the unpleasant symptoms which the antihistamine drugs relieve.

Now it has been discovered that these drugs will also destroy fungi such as those which invade the skin to cause athlete's foot. The discovery was made by accident when an Army doctor used a cream containing an antihistamine to stop the intense itching of his own case of athlete's foot. Much to his amazement the inflammation subsided overnight and a complete cure followed.

This led to laboratory tests of the antihistamines and it was found that they stopped the growth of ten different fungi. Following these tests, the preparations were used in treating athlete's foot, even stubborn cases cleared up rapidly. Pain and severe itching were relieved within a few minutes after application of the antihistamine substances. In less than 24 hours the inflammation and swelling of the tissues were markedly improved and the cracks in the skin began to heal.

Many types of treatment have been employed in treating ringworm of the feet. They include various antiseptic preparations containing benzoic and salicylic acid. Ringworm of the feet causes peeling and cracking of the feet, particularly between the toes. In many cases, blisters form. When the blisters break open they leave a red, raw surface.

In treating this ailment, care must be taken not to use irritating substances, particularly in acute cases, since they will only make the condition worse. Of course, ringworm of the feet should be treated under the direction of a physician who will determine the proper preparation to be employed. However, it would appear from these first reports that the antihistamine substances may be of great value in checking this common disorder.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

L. M.: Will you please tell me sometime about Addison's disease?

Answer: Addison's disease is a condition due to a disturbance of one pair of the glands of internal secretion, known as the adrenal glands. The exact cause of this condition is unknown.

The symptoms consist of great loss of strength, loss of weight, lowering of the blood pressure, nausea and vomiting, and brownish or amber-colored pigmentation of the skin.

An extract made from the adrenal glands may be helpful. The use of large amounts of salt in capsules is also beneficial.

cational assistance to districts affected by Federal activities. But he failed to mention that he knifed the $300,000,000 aid to education bill, which would have helped us locally, for instance."

MacMullen added in a sarcastic tone, "He also supported two more bills. One provided aid for the Navajo Indians, which didn't affect us here, and the other was the anti-poll tax bill, and we certainly don't have that problem here."

The Democratic candidate also charged McConnell with voting "the straight Communist party line nine times." MacMullen cited McConnell's vote against aid to Korea and assistance to other nations, as a vote "imperiling America's security."

* * *

SEVERAL WEEKS ago, MacMullen continued, McConnell spoke before the Main Line Chamber of Commerce, "whose political saint is William McKinley," and his talk, the speaker said, was "the finest piece of hemming and hawing and twisting and squirming that I've ever seen."

This talk, MacMullen said, was praised by the president of the Main Line Chamber of Commerce, who told McConnell, "You pitched a wonderful game, Sam."

MacMullen commented on this, "Down in Ardmore, there are 1096 Autocar workers on strike now. They are learning the full meaning of the Taft-Hartley law, the hard way. I wonder whether they and their families think that Sam McConnell pitched a wonderful game?"

"I wonder whether the people living in certain school districts and the teachers, who are still working for peanuts, think that Sam pitched a wonderful game?"

Closing his talk, MacMullen asserted, "My friends, if we want peace and security, if we want to protect our incomes and our working conditions, if we want any one or all of the things which we cherish, then our only salvation lies in victory for the slate which you have endorsed."

* * *

AT THE BEGINNING of his talk, MacMullen reported "amazing progress in our campaign throughout the county."

He said that the Democratic party is handicapped by lack of funds and lack of sympathy from newspapers.

"Most important of all, our opponents will not meet us in an honest showdown to discuss both sides of the issues in this campaign."

Asking, "What impels PAC workers to pool their dollars, their energy and their work and pit their collective resources against the rich and strongly entrenched Republican high command in Montgomery county?" the speaker answered, "It is the unquenchable yearning in our hearts for lasting peace, continued prosperity and economic security for ourselves and our children, human decency, human dignity and tolerance."

He ended his talk with the plea, "Let's close ranks and go forward together in unity and full strength on Nov. 7."

* * *

ROBERT B. CONNER, president of Spicer Local 644, United Auto Workers (CIO), preceded MacMullen with a brief report on PAC activity, locally and throughout the county.

"Enthusiasm in the county is running very high," the union leader declared. He said labor representation is growing and called for redoubled efforts in Pottstown and in the adjoining townships.

He spoke in passing and with irony of McConnell's talk on Tuesday night. "What a great friend of labor he is," Conner said. "He must be a very much misunderstood man."

On 20 leading issues, Conner said, such as Taft-Hartley repeal, public housing, minimum wages, FEPC and aid to Korea, "McConnell voted right twice."

Conner said of MacMullen, "He's supported labor and he's been in sympathy and labor. There's no doubt in my mind, he's the best candidate we could have picked."

* * *

HARRY B. TRAVIS, president of the Montgomery County CIO council, followed MacMullen's talk with a report on PAC activity throughout Eastern Pennsylvania.

"We have very active and effective organizations throughout the area," he said," and throughout Pennsylvania." He predicted a "rude awakening" for the GOP on election day.

The last part of the meeting was taken up with appointing ward workers for Nov. 7. PAC workers will encourage men and women to vote and will supply cars to take them to the polls.

Curtis B. Miller, local CIO-PAC chairman, was in charge of last night's meeting.

80 Structures Planned For French Creek Park

HARRISBURG, Oct. 25 (AP)—The General State authority today received bids totaling $491,815 for construction of more than 80 park structures in French Creek State park in Berks and Chester counties.

The new buildings will range from bathhouses to picnic shelters.

2. An order channeling steel into the building of freight cars, also due tomorrow. This is expected to be a three-month program, setting aside more than 300,000 tons a month.
3. An order, due perhaps early next week, requiring steel producers to supply certain amounts per month to warehouses in order to meet the needs of small business, which normally gets its steel from warehouses rather than the steel mills.
4. An order, coming within a few days, that would spread defense orders fairly among aluminum producers and fabricators, so that each company would have to take only a certain number of defense orders.

were under orders of General MacArthur to smash all the way to the Manchurian-Siberian boundary of Korea as fast as possible.

* * *

U. S. AND BRITISH troops operating to the rear of South Korean spearheads have been directed to stay at least 20 miles short of the sensitive border to avoid international incident, informed sources in Tokyo said.

Already there has been two incidents. An Air Force spokesman in Washington said a U. S. fighter plane was hit Tuesday by anti-aircraft fire from the Manchurian side of the border. The pilot ditched his plane at sea and was picked up by a United Nations naval craft.

Two U. S. Marines planes were fired on Monday by Manchurian anti-aircraft gunners. They escaped unhit. In both cases, the U. S. planes were on the Korean side of the border.

Four Allied columns were heading for the northwest rim of Korea. Broken Red troops were fleeing before them on foot and by ox cart.

The South Korean Sixth division was closest to the boundary goal. It was four miles west of Hoemoktong and 20 miles northwest of Huichon in North Central Korea Wednesday—only 30 to 32 miles from the boundary-marking Yalu river.

GOP Group Sees Possible House Control, Expects to Retake at Least 30 Seats

By The Associated Press

The Republican congressional campaign committee predicted yesterday that the GOP will win at least 30 House seats in the Nov. 7 election—and maybe enough more to oust the Democrats from control.

Republicans now have 169 seats in the 435-member House. They need 49 more to gain a majority.

The campaign committee's forecast came on the heels of a prediction by Vice President Barkley that the Democrats will gain strength in both House and Senate as a result of the election.

The chairman of the Republican group, Rep. Leonard W. Hall of New York state, said a district-by-district survey covering a large part of the country indicates "widespread resentment against the confusion and incompetence in Washington."

"If this resentment manifests itself in a national trend, then the prospects are that we will gain 55 to 60 seats and capture the House," Hall said in a statement.

* * *

HE ADDED, HOWEVER, that the election figures to be the closest in ten years. And he said Republican candidates in many districts are hampered by lack of campaign funds.

In that connection the GOP House leader, Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, telegraphed Hall:

"It would be a tragic shame if the people of this nation were deprived of a Republican 82nd Congress merely because the left-wing coalition has slush funds that exceed Republican contributions by as much as five to one."

Hall said Democratic campaign coffers are swelled by contributions from such groups as Americans for Democratic Action and the CIO political action committee.

This was termed by James Loeb, executive secretary of ADA, "The unkindest cut of all."

New York Police Nab 232 'Hoodlums' In Drive to Forestall Election Trouble

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—The nation's biggest city cracked down on hoodlums today.

A hoodlum, by definition of its acting mayor, is anyone who might cause trouble in the locally red-hot election.

About 700 detectives threaded the city's by-ways, picking up petty crooks and tough guys in their hangouts. Police stations were crowded with grumbling bums. A special magistrate's court was set up to dispose of them.

During the day 232 persons were arrested—one even picked up on Staten Island, the quietest of the city's five boroughs. Twenty of them pleaded guilty but the rest elected to fight the charges.

The acting mayor, Vincent R. Impellitteri, a Democrat running for election as an independent when he couldn't get his party's nomination, ordered the clean-up.

* * *

HIS RECENTLY appointed police commissioner, Thomas F. Murphy, who's been clearing the department of gambling graft charges, showed he meant business.

Murphy said the roundup would continue "as long as I'm around. If the courts clear those arrested today, they'll be rearrested," he declared.

Then he took a badge away from an honorary deputy police commissioner — Generoso Pope, Jr., publisher of Il Progresso Italo-Americano, Italian language newspaper.

Last night Impellitteri said Pope had told him that the Democratic mayoralty candidate, Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora, was supported by gambler Frank Costello.

Missing Scientist

Prof. Bruno Pontecorvo, missing British atom scientist, is shown during a visit to Italy. Early in September, Pontecorvo flew to Stockholm with his Swedish-born wife and their three children. From Stockholm they flew on to Helsinki, Finland. No further trace of them has been found.

Red Minister's New Car Has Built-in Flag Pole

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 25 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky showed up for work today in a brand new car—a big black Cadillac limousine.

Green Assails Taft In Address Scoring Sales Tax Proposal

CHICAGO, Oct. 25 (AP)—William Green said today the chief issue in the election campaign is "liberty versus Taftism."

Calling for "an overwhelming vote for the friends of labor" on Nov. 7, the president of the American Federation of Labor asserted:

"Before this nation can be adequately prepared for the task of defense, our victory in Korea must be matched by victory at home. Victory at home can be achieved only by the elimination from Congress of those . . . who would weaken the Administration in this time of crisis for personal political gain.

"We must elect men to Congress who know what liberty really means. We must remove those who define it as the power of the few to take liberties with the rights of the many. Senator Taft has said that the issue is 'liberty versus Socialism.' I say that the issue today is 'liberty versus Taftism.'"

* * *

He said the National Association of Manufacturers had proposed "a steep, permanent, universal sales tax." He added:

"It claims that it will render other tax measures unnecessary and will, incidentally and by the sheerest of coincidences, avoid the necessity of an excess profits tax.

"I presume that this will now be 'the word' for Senators Taft, Wiley, Millikan and other NAM puppets in Congress."

* * *

THE AFL CHIEF reported he was disappointed by the civilian construction controls applied to date.

"No cutback has been made in any of the many branches of the industry except housing," he said. "Credit restrictions have made it virtually impossible for lower and middle income families to buy houses. Yet nothing has so far been done to curb price gouging by builders and suppliers of materials."

5000 in Pyongyang Celebrate Liberation

PYONGYANG, Korea, Oct. 25 (AP)—Five thousand citizens of this former North Korean capital attended a "liberation" ceremony in City Hall square today—four months to the day after war began.

The crowd represented a very small fraction of Yyongyang's estimated pre-war population of 500,000 to 600,000. Many civilians have yet to return to the city.

South Korean Interior Minister Chough Pyong Ok told the citizens they should tackle at once their post-liberation rebuilding and rehabilitation problems.

AN APPEAL FROM
BURGESS GRIFFITH

Your Contribution Spells Hope

The Cry for Help That Only YOU Can Hear...

The cry of a child, alone and afraid, would reach your heart and bring you running any time.

You wouldn't say, "She's not mine!" . . . or . . . "I can't afford to help!" . . . or . . . "See me later."

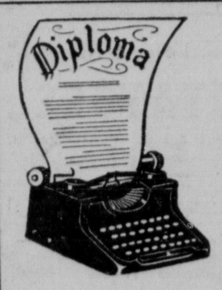

When no one else can hear, any child is your child.

This week, you'll hear a child's cry for help. It will come in the quiet knock on your door that says a neighbor has stopped by for your pledge to the Red Feather campaign. And no one will answer—if you don't.

This neighbor will ask you to give enough.

No one else can make your Red Feather pledge. It has to be you.

Grange Conducts Hallowe'en Party

A Hallowe'en party was substituted for its literary program by the New Hanover Community grange last night, when contests became a lively feature.

Winners of the various events were apple carrying, Mrs. Dorothy Blank; musical game, Levan Steltz; balloon throwing, Miss Mary Alice Smale; corn guessing, Mrs. Kate Reinert; comic costume, Roger Moyer; original costume, Mrs. Blank, and best-dressed, Mrs. Sara Steltz.

It was announced that the next meeting of the group will be the annual farm product show in charge of the home economics committee.

Steltz, the organization overseer, presided in the absence of Master Arthur Landis, who is attending a State grange meeting in York.

CONGRESS CALL —

House before announcing any decision.

If the early call is issued, Mr. Truman is expected to argue that despite the victories in Korea, the nation and world still face emergency conditions because of Russia's attitude. He is reported ready to say that there must be no let-down in the defense program and that as a result of the program, home front measures such as tightened rent controls and higher taxes are urgently necessary.

Some Democratic strategists figure that such a pre-election summons to Congress would tend to help many Democrats facing contests Nov. 7. They believe Mr. Truman's demand for a stronger rent control law would have wide appeal among tenants, although it would be unwelcome to the less-numerous landlords.

They feel, too, that such a White House call would provide material for campaign arguments that the administration is providing strong leadership in what it views as a time of crisis.

Two Drivers Exonerated In Area Fatal Accidents

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Oct. 25—Two operators of automobiles involved in fatal accidents were exonerated of criminal negligence by a coroner's jury of two men and four women at inquests held by Coroner W. J. Rushong today.

Fred C. DeGraff of the Merchants hotel, Pottstown, was freed in connection with the death of Amelia Scheichler, 69, of Main street, Trappe, who died eight days after she was struck crossing Ridge pike near her home on Sept. 30.

Elmer Heistand, Spring City RD 1, was exonerated in the death of John Kaye, 64, who police said walked into the Heistand car on Sept. 28 in North Coventry township. Kaye died in Pottstown hospital.

40 Area Men Will Take Exams in November Draft

Forty more Pottstown area men will be ordered for pre-induction physical examinations under the November draft, it was announced last night by State Draft headquarters in Harrisburg.

A total of 7367 men in the State will be ordered to take the examinations. The Commonwealth's draft quota for November is 4762.

The last group of men from here ordered for pre-induction physicals took them on Oct. 13. Of 67 examined, 49 passed.

Since the Korean war, 28 men from here have been drafted: 12 on Sept. 19 and 16 on Oct. 10.

National Grange Master Dies After Forum Talk

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Albert S. Goss, 68, master of the National Grange farm organization, collapsed and died tonight shortly after he finished a speech before the 19th Annual Herald Tribune forum.

He discussed the role of the nation's farmers in American mobilization. When he finished, he sat down while CIO President Philip Murray began his address to the forum.

Suddenly Goss collapsed. He was carried from the main ball room of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel to an anteroom but was pronounced dead a few minutes later.

British Conservatives Win in Special Election

GLASGOW, Scotland, Oct. 25 (AP)—Britain's Conservative party triumphed today in a special election viewed by both sides as a trend indicator for the next general election expected in the Spring.

The Tory candidate, J. R. H. Hutchison, won the seat in the House of Commons for Scotstoun district in Glasgow by a margin of 1319 votes over his Labor party opponent. The election was to fill a vacancy caused by the death of another Conservative, Sir Arthur Young.

Nobel Prize Winner Is Cleared in Fatality

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 25 (AP)—Prof. James B. Sumner, 62, Nobel prize-winning chemist, has been cleared of a criminal negligence charge in the highway death of a seven-year-old boy.

The Cornell university scientist's car struck and killed Leon D. Collins while he was riding a bicycle last Friday.

Coroner Ralph Low said after an inquest that he had found no criminal negligence on the part of Sumner.

Home Economics Group To Give Grange Program

The home economics committee of North Coventry grange will stage the program at tonight's 8 o'clock meeting.

FIREHOUSE SITE —

Bailey streets, another residentially-zoned section, with intention of moving in there.

The public hearing on that proposed zoning change will be held before the adjustment board Tuesday night.

Opponents of the shopping center who were contacted last night for their views on the North End Fire company proposal emphatically declined comment.

An obvious cause of the touchiness surrounding the issue is that many company members are neighbors to the persons who oppose the company's move.

The fire company voted Monday night to take an option-to-buy the tract. Sale price is $7940.

Driving Licenses Of Two Motorists Revoked by State

Driving licenses of two Pottstown area motorists were revoked during the final week of September, the Bureau of Highway Safety announced yesterday.

Revocations were Joseph I. Epright, 30, Custer court, intoxication; Ralph E. Yerger, 517 Glasgow street, Stowe, failure to disclose identity at the scene of an accident.

Seven suspensions in that period were: Robert Garber, 514 Lincoln avenue, and Herbert A. Shade, Bechtelsville RD 1, speeding, defense submitted; E. Jane Dwyer, Sumneytown pike, and Maude O'Neil, 1336 High street, speeding, no defense submitted.

Also Mrs. Alice M. Gresko, Gay and Logan streets, and Louis Membrino, Major Hollow road, Royersford, speeding; Mary G. Satterthwaite, 814 North Evans street, incompetent operator.

Licenses were restored to Clarence H. Yost, 347 Union alley; Andrew P. Chuck, 53 Second avenue, Royersford; Herbert P. Mohr, Birdsboro RD 1, and John C. Gustitus, 629 Rhoads avenue, Boyertown.

Pottstown Oil Dealer Is Named Chairman

Edward J. Sweeney, Pottstown oil distributor, was elected chairman of the Montgomery county division, Associated Petroleum Industries of Pennsylvania, at a meeting in the Valley Forge hotel, Norristown, yesterday.

Eight other Pottstown area men will be elected to committees of the county group.

Members of the legislative committee include Pottstown's Walter F. Schwab; Glenwood Fronheiser, of Gilbertsville; George Mowery, of Spring City, and Kenneth B. Nace, of Collegeville.

Harold Weber was chosen to serve on the public relations committee.

John B. Hartenstine Jr. was elected chairman of the local affairs committee, which includes Kenneth Buchert, of Sanatoga, Harold C. Buckwalter and C. Raymond Eppehimer, of Pottstown, and J. Edwin Miller, of Schwenkville.

Skin Problems aren't troubling lovely Jacqueline Brabant of New York City. Introduced to Noxzema by a student nurse, she says, "I have used it faithfully ever since, as my night cream and powder base—and it's so economical, too!"

Irritated skin. "I have skin allergy problems," says Mrs. V. Bratthauer of Miami Shores, Florida. "I find Noxzema helps relieve the resultant skin irritation. In fact, since childhood, Noxzema has helped my skin look softer and smoother."

NEW HOME FACIAL

Look lovelier in 10 days... or your money back! Read these 4 simple steps developed by a doctor

● No need for a lot of elaborate preparations... no complicated rituals! With one cream, you can cleanse...help protect...and help heal! The secret is a marvelous new Home Facial—using just one dainty, snow-white cream—famous greaseless Noxzema. It's as easy to do as washing your face. And it can help bring you a softer, smoother, lovelier-looking complexion in as little as 10 days' time—or your money back!

Here's all you do

Morning—Step 1.—Apply Noxzema over face and neck. With a damp cloth, "creamwash" just as you would with soap and water. Rinse well. "Creamwashing" cleanses so thoroughly. Why, Noxzema even smells clean!

Step 2.—After drying, smooth on a light film of greaseless Noxzema for your make-up foundation. This invisible film of dainty Noxzema not only holds make-up beautifully—but it also helps to protect your skin all day!

Evening—Step 3.—Before retiring, "creamwash" again with Noxzema. How clean your skin looks! How fresh it feels! See how you've washed away make-up, the day's accumulation of dirt and grime—without harsh rubbing!

Step 4.—Now, lightly massage Noxzema into face and neck. Pat a little extra over any blemishes*. While you sleep, Noxzema helps heal them—helps your skin look softer, smoother, too. And it's greaseless! No "smeary" face or messy pillow with Noxzema!

A skin doctor developed this new Noxzema Home Facial. When it was tested on 181 girls and women, 4 out of 5 showed lovelier-looking skin. And this famous medicated formula can help your skin look lovelier, too—or your money back!

Money-Back Offer! Try the new Noxzema Home Facial for 10 days. If your skin doesn't show real improvement, return the jar to Noxzema, Baltimore, Md.—your money cheerfully refunded.

But you will be delighted! Get Noxzema now—and save on this Limited Time Special. Get your 85¢ jar for only 59¢ plus tax—almost half again as much for your money as in the Small size! At all drug and cosmetic counters.

Oily skin was a real problem to Johanna Wachtler of Detroit—until she used Noxzema. "It's helped so much," she says. "Now Noxzema is my daily beauty aid!"

Dry skin bothered Deloris Brown, of Dallas—until Noxzema showed her the way to help keep it soft and fresh-looking. She says, "Now I use Noxzema daily. It's my favorite make-up base."

37 Ex-Employes Receive Pensions

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Oct. 25—There were 37 former Montgomery county employes receiving $20,904.96 a year in pensions from the County Retirement board on Sept. 1, it was disclosed by the 13th annual report of the board, made public today.

During the fiscal year there were two new retirements and one death. At the same time the year opened with 355 contributing members. During the period 16 new entrants were listed and 17 terminations, to bring the total to 354 on Sept. 1.

Assets of the Retirement board totalled $1,396,551.41, with virtually all of them in U. S. Government bonds. This was an increase of $149,458.98 over the previous year's total.

For the 1951 year, Montgomery county will contribute $88,006 as its portion of the fund. Employes make percentage payments monthly.

Catholic Foundation Gets Bulk of Raskob's Estate

CENTREVILLE, Md., Oct. 25 (AP)—John J. Raskob, one-time vice president of General Motors, left the bulk of his estimated $5,000,000 estate to the Raskob foundation for Catholic charities, it was disclosed today.

His will, probated in Queen Anne County Orphans' court, did not disclose the exact amount that the foundation will get.

He left his personal effects and household furnishings to the ten survivors among his 13 children.

Cop Confused by Woman Drying Her Nail Polish

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 25 (AP) — Oh those women drivers! Motorcycle Patrolman Dave Gleason reported this one today:

He followed a woman driver down busy Lake avenue, watching her hand signal first for a left turn, then for a right, then for a stop. Although her hand kept windmilling, she never turned.

Gleason stopped her, gave her a stern lecture on hand signals and then waved her on when she came up with this excuse:

"Oh, I'm sorry, officer! My nail polish wasn't quite dry. I was trying to hurry it up."

Truman Urges UMT to End High Service Rejection Rate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—President Truman said today that one-third of America's youths were physically or mentally unfit to fight for their country. He called it a "disgrace."

The President also declared that Americans are "not too proud to fight"—reversing the famous words uttered by President Woodrow Wilson in the early days of World War I—and he told an audience of National Guard leaders:

"We will fight for the right every time."

The speech signalled what appeared to be a renewed Administration drive for enactment of a universal military training program when Congress returns late in November.

Congress has repeatedly turned down White House requests for UMT legislation, and Mr. Truman himself agreed two months ago, at the height of the Korean war crisis, that the program could not be put into effect until the situation eased.

Now, with the war virtually ended, Mr. Truman made it clear he intends to keep hammering at Congress to pass a UMT bill.

* * *

ADDRESSING THE 72nd conference of the National Guard association, Mr. Truman said in a chatty, off-the-cuff talk:

"Eight times I have asked the Congress, since I have been President, for a universal training program for the young men of the United States.

"You know, one of the most disgraceful things that ever happened to this country was to find that 34 percent of the young men and young women were not physically and mentally fit to serve the country.

"Now that is a disgrace to the richest nation in the world with all the medical knowledge that is supposed to exist in the world.

"A universal training program would eradicate that situation," Mr. Truman continued, and he told the Guardsmen:

"I hope that you will put everything you have behind the idea of a training program for the youth of this country, to make them better citizens, to make them able to defend their country when it is necessary."

Big, Little Campaigners Meet

Two youngsters, Mary Ann Lusk (left) and Martha Brown prove to a veteran campaigner, Ohio's Senator Robert A. Taft, that they know something about campaigning, too. Members of the "Kids for Holzer hospital," the girls are selling the Republican campaigner the 21,600th donut in a drive for $500,000 to expand Holzer hospital in their hometown of Gallipolis, O. Taft was in Gallipolis in his own drive to win re-election to the United States Senate

Korea Casualties Near 27,000 Mark

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Announced American casualties in Korea rose today to 26,701, an increase of 618 in the past week.

The Defense department said the figure includes those whose next of kin received notification through midnight of October 20.

The latest tabulation includes 3683 killed in action, 18,682 wounded and 4337 missing in action.

The official figure on total deaths is 4125. In addition to those killed in action, it includes 442 who died of wounds and one listed as missing whose capture by the North Koreans and subsequent death has been confirmed.

Soviet Flag Display Branded as Illegal

DENVER, Oct. 25 (AP)—Denver District Attorney Bert Keating said today that he won't take any action to force removal of the Russian flag from a United Nations display in Denver Civic center.

But he invited Colorado Attorney General John W. Metzger to make a complaint under oath. Then, said Keating, I'll study the question of whether the 1919 law is constitutional. It was Metzger who protested the display of the Russian flag.

The flags weren't out today. They were displayed yesterday in connection with a United Nations celebration, and are scheduled to appear again on Armistice day.

"They can't hang the damn thing there," Metzger said. "Our law won't permit it."

* * *

BUT AMERICAN Legion Adjutant J. Frank Binder, was quick to defend the display. The American Legion auxiliary made the various flags and presented them to the city.

Said Binder, "Russia is a member of the United Nations. It's not up to the Legion post or the city of Denver to dictate to the United Nations.

"We're not going to give Russia a chance to find a grievance. We're not at war."

Metzger asked Keating to "take appropriate action." Metzger said a 1919 Colorado law makes it a felony to display the Communist flag in Colorado.

The law, he said, describes the blood Red flag with its hammer and sickle, as the "label of anarchy."

Pleven Army Proposal Gets Parliament Okay

PARIS, Thursday, Oct. 26 (AP)—Parliament today approved Premier Rene Pleven's plan for a supranational European army as the only way France will accept the rearmament of Germans. The vote was 349 to 235.

Pleven"s plan calls for a West European defense minister, responsible to a council representing the interested governments and also to an international parliament, to administer the army. All member countries would contribute troops, including Germany.

Shortly before the vote former Premier Edouard Daladier declared the plan already was doomed by the cool reception given it in Britain, Belgium and Western Germany.

Daladier said he believed all other North Atlantic pact nations would unite against the French plan.

"German rearmament is now a decided if not an accomplished fact," he declared bitterly.

* * *

IN CLOSING the two-day debate, Pleven made it clear he would accept no other plan for an independent German army.

"We are ready to discuss all details, but if the principle of our plan is ruled out we will maintain our refusal to German rearmament," he declared.

He denied that the plan—to create a European army after the Schuman plan to merge West European coal and steel production is signed, and after the formation of a council of governments and appointment of a European defense minister — would cause delay.

Manpower Controls Not Seen Imminent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—The nation's new manpower chief said today the labor supply is tightening up and some transfers of workers may have to be "negotiated" to fill critical needs.

But controls are a long way off, he said.

These views were expressed by Robert C. Goodwin at his first news conference since he was named by Secretary of Labor Tobin as executive director of the Office of Defense Manpower. The number of unfilled jobs increased from 32,000 to a total of 35,000 in the past two weeks, Goodwin said. That is more than twice the number before the Korean fighting started in June.

"I think we can meet our manpower problems without control," Goodwin told reporters.

Intimate Friends Make Last Visit To 'Jazz Singer'

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25 (AP)—Close friends and associates of Al Jolson dropped in for a final visit today.

Only the most near and dear acquaintances came to see the body of "Mr. Show Business," lying in a bronze casket surrounded by flowers in the den of his sunny suburban home in Encino.

And once again, the Jazz Singer was just the cantor's boy. Jolson was dressed in a plain blue suit, a Talis shawl draped over his shoulders in memory of his father.

While sorrowing friends completed arrangements for funeral services and interment tomorrow, word came from New York that the singer left more than $4,000,000 and most of it will go to charities of three denominations—Jewish, Catholic and Protestant.

* * *

THE WEEKLY theatrical magazine Variety said Jolson's will provides generous trust funds for his fourth wife and widow, the former Erle Galbraith, and his two adopted sons, Asa Jr., 2½, and Albert, 16.

Attorney Charles Schwartz said specific bequests will go to needy students at New York university, the College of the City of New York and Columbia university.

Privacy cloaked today's activities, but final rites tomorrow will be public. A crowd running into the thousands is anticipated at Temple Israel on Hollywood boulevard.

AEC Names Oil Man To Head Program in Atomic Development

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — Marion W. Boyer, Esso Standard Oil company executive, was named general manager of the Atomic Energy commission today. He takes over Nov. 1.

He succeeds Carroll Wilson who resigned Aug. in an explosive split with AEC chairman Gordon Dean.

The appointment to the top operating job in the multi-billion dollar program for development of nuclear energy—and of the hydrogen bomb—is subject to Senate confirmation. The post pays $15,000 a year.

AEC Chairman Dean, announcing Boyer's acceptance of the job, said Carleton Shugg will resume his post as deputy general manager. Shugg has been acting general manager since Wilson quit.

* * *

BOYER IS resigning after 23 years with Esso Standard where he is now vice president in charge of manufacturing.

The AEC noted that his work with Esso has included "various progressively more responsible assignments in research, manufacturing and executive capacities."

A point was made of the fact that a considerable part of Boyer's career was spent in charge of one of the largest and most complex oil refineries in the world at Baton Rouge, La.

* * *

"Many major developments in the oil industry have been pioneered at this plant," the AEC announcement said. "It was one of the top producers of aviation gasoline and synthetic rubber during World War II."

"Dean, in a statement expressing gratification that Boyer has accepted the commission's top management post, said:

"He brings to this key place in the atomic energy program broad executive and technical experience and a record of outstanding success as the director of large-scale manufacturing and research operations."

Soviet Plan for Reich Attacked by Acheson

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson today denounced the cominform proposal for a unified Germany as a "perversion" of the world's hope for peace.

The secretary scorned as "old and unworkable" the whole four-point plan advanced Saturday at Prague by the Soviet bloc foreign ministers.

He called on Russia instead to live up to its 1945 Potsdam pledges, with the suggestion that nothing else is lacking to bring about German disarmament and unity.

"The time has long since passed when the world can be stirred to hope by general phrases on the Soviet Union about disarmament and peace and German unity," Acheson said.

"We who have striven so hard for these things want actions—we want the threatening East German army disbanded, the capricious restraints on internal German trade removed, and free democratic elections held in all of Germany."

* * *

THE SOVIET BLOC proposal, he said, "abuses by its preversion of language the world's hope for peace and understanding, for an end to fear and threats."

The secretary, in a tartly worded 900-word statement which he read at his news conference, rejected the Prague proposal point by point.

Acheson asked "why" to the first Cominform proposal, that Russia, Britain, France and the U.S. publish a new declaration against rearming Germany and against permitting the conquered country to be "dragged into any aggressive plans."

Bunche Elected To Position on Harvard Faculty

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 25 (AP) —The first Negro professor in the 314-year-old history of Harvard university is Dr. Ralph J. Bunche.

The appointment of the United Nations official and Nobel peace prize winner as Professor of Government was announced by the university today.

Dr. Bunche, 46, is now senior director of the United Nations Trusteeship council. His grandfather was a slave.

University Provost Paul H. Buck said Dr. Bunche's professorship "was voted by the corporation on Jan. 16, 1950, and by the board of overseers on April 10, 1950."

* * *

HE SAID Dr. Bunche accepted but received leave of absence because of his present commitments in the United Nations.

Orphaned at 14, he worked his way through school and then through the University of California at Los Angeles on athletic scholarships. He got his master's degree at Harvard in 1928 and received a doctorate there in 1934.

U. S. Chiefs Hint Bluff by China Reds In Threatened All-Out Invasion of Tibet

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — American official authorities suspect that the Chinese Communists are bluffing in talking about invading Tibet at this time.

Without entirely ruling out the possibility of an invasion, experts on the remote and lofty Mid-Asian land said today that high Winter winds and icy mountain passes make large-scale military operations unlikely for months to come.

Radio Peiping broadcast that the China Reds are moving on the neighbor mountainland to "free three million Tibetans from imperialistic oppression." At New Delhi the Indian foreign ministry said it has heard of "certain troop movements and incursions" near the frontier but there was no support for the invasion report elsewhere.

Secretary of State Acheson told reporters the State department had no information beyond what was broadcast. Peiping has made the invasion threat before. Just now a Tibetan mission is scheduled to leave New Delhi for Peiping to negotiate with the Communist regime and there is some suspicion here of an attempt to influence the negotiations.

• • •

ALTHOUGH TIBET has been visited by few white men, the State department has recent first-hand information from the reports of two groups of Americans who fled from West China across the "top of the world" on the approach of Communist forces.

One group included J. Hall Paxton, former consul at Tihwa, and the other was led by Douglas S. Mackiernan, a vice consul who met death last April when fired on by Tibetan border guards.

Paxton with an earlier start managed to reach India in November after difficulties in crossing the mountain passes. Mackiernan's group had to hole up for the Winter before pushing on. With his party was Frank Messac, a research scholar, who brought detailed reports on conditions.

ASKS DRAFT SLOW-UP

BOSTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Go slow in drafting doctors for military duty or there won't be enough to care for civilians hit by atomic or biological war, Dr. James C. Sargent, of Milwaukee, warned tonight.

NJHS Officers Named During Election Here

By NORMA JEAN RENNINGER

ACTOR HOSPITALIZED

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25 (AP)—Gregory Peck was hospitalized today after he complained of feeling faint while talking to studio associates.

Junior High Children Sign Up 700 for PTA

By DOROTHY MARCH

In the PTA membership drive, the pupils of Junior High school secured 700 members.

Ninth grade students obtained 187, Eighth grade 223, and Seventh grade the highest number, 290 members.

In each grade the room with the best record will receive a treat of ice cream and home-made cupcakes. The lucky homerooms are 313, 206 and 202.

Alan Botto Reports On State Observance

By DOROTHY MAY MARCH

Alan Botto of section 104 gave a very interesting report on Pennsylvania for Pennsylvania week.

Alan spoke to the pupils of the Seventh grades of sections 101, 102, 104, 202 and 205. His talk was about industries and historic shrines, such as the block house located in Fort Pitt. He gave a few facts about such important places as Pittsburgh, Oil City, Altoona, Downingtown and Philadelphia, which is known as "the workshop of the world".

Ninth Year Pupils Will Be Graded On Book Reports

By MARGARET ISTENES

"Who wants to volunteer for a book report? Don't all raise your hands at once."

Those are the things Mrs. Mary Wolf and John Koury, ninth grade English teachers, may be heard saying. During the present week and in the next several weeks, book reports are being given by the Ninth grade students of Junior High school.

For this particular report, any book from the school library or public library is acceptable.

Pupils will be graded by the following facts: the approach, the plan, preparation, English, posture, distinctness, the tone of voice, interest, the closing and the time it took. Reports are to average four minutes.

State Highlights Given For Seventh Graders

By EILEEN YOCUM

Last week Seventh grade section 222, Miss Frances Lachman's home room, studied about Pennsylvania. They learned the State flower, the State tree and the State bird, as well as two mottos for Pennsylvania.

They also studied the crops, leading industries and places of interest.

Pictures drawn by pupils showing historic shrines were used for room decorations. The class visited the Pennsylvania Week exhibit in the school library.

Children in Europe Grateful for Toys

By JANE NEIFFER

Last year there was a drive to gather clothing and toys for the children in Europe. Four shiploads went to different countries there.

Boys and girls in all the schools are now receiving letters from the children's homes, city kindergartens and hospitals.

The St. James Aides class, of St. James Evangelical and Reformed church, met at the home of Mrs. Ruth Major, where plans for the Christmas party were made. The affair will be held at Miss Gertrude Marriott's home on Dec. 6. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Mabel Miller, Mrs. Ruth Mogel, Miss Laura Knipe, Mrs. Gertie Banyai, Mrs. Betty Trinley, Mrs. Florence Ziegler, Miss Mildred Major, Mrs. Sara Major, Miss Gertrude Marriott, Miss Mary Benner, Miss Marie Barlow, Mrs. Harriet Tyson, Mrs. Ruth Brimmer and the hostess.

Mrs. Joseph Schnorr and Miss Dorothy Schnorr, of Rochelle, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer, Millville, N. J; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Keyser, Schwenksville, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Brimmer Jr. and family.

Miss Laura Knipe visited friends in Scranton.

Mrs. Elwood Schrieber and daughter, Marilyn, and Mrs. Elsie Weidenmoyer spent a day with Mrs. Marie Cassel in Norristown.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Spare visited Mrs. Ruby Weaver at Neiffers.

Watered Manure Causes Heavy Losses In Mushroom Industry, Official Charges

HARRISBURG, Oct. 25 (AP)—Southeastern Pennsylvania's big mushroom industry is losing over a million dollars a year through illegal manure sales practices, a State official charged today.

James F. Fox, inspector of weights and measures for the Internal Affairs department, said in a report that some firms selling manure to mushroom growers are illegally soaking it with water to increase its weight.

Fox, together with State police officials, conducted an investigation of the situation after receiving complaints from Chester county area mushroom growers.

Fox said manure sold to many growers contained as much as 50 percent water, resulting in unwarranted extra cost since manure is sold by the ton. The some 400 growers in the Chester section use over one million tons of manure a year. Mushrooms are grown in manure beds.

Fox said in his investigation report that the manure is brought to Chester county from race tracks in Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey and New York. No arrests have been made so far, he said, because the watering down process is performed outside Pennsylvania's borders.

* * *

JOSEPH BLICKLEY, chief of the State Bureau of Weights and Measures, said the practice of adding water to manure to increase its weight is illegal. He said, however, that the fact that the watering down is done outside the State may pose a legal problem in bringing prosecution against dealers.

Blickley said he will ask Attorney Charles J. Margiotti for advice as to what legal action can be taken in the manure over-weight cases under present law.

He said also he will ask the Federal government to crack down on interstate shipments of illegally watered manure.

William S. Livengood Jr., State secretary of internal affairs, said meanwhile that if the state does not have a legal remedy to halt the watering down of manure, he will introduce enabling legislation in the 1951 legislature.

The funeral of Thomas M. Tobin, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Bauer, north of town, was held recently at the Church of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Interment was made in St. Aloysius cemetery, Pottstown.

Mrs. Willard Hirsch was admitted to the Reading hospital as a surgical patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Melcher and daughter, Rita, left to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Copsey, of Indian Head, Md., and visited their son, Francis, in Washington, where he is attending a school studying for the priesthood.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gilbert celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reichert celebrated their first anniversary. A dinner was served in the Gilbert home for the occasion. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Letterhouse, Carl and Mary Louise Letterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reichert, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gilbert, Ronald Donald and Elmer Gilbert Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gilbert and family spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Schwenk and and family in Pennsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gehman and daughter, Anna Mary, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shenk and daughter, Gladys, of Elizabethtown RD, visited Bertha and Lizzie Gehman.

Paul Derr, an employe of the Bally Block company, badly cut his hand when caught in the knives of the machine he was operating.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gerhart and sons, James Jr., Robert and Paul, visited in Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D. C. They also took their son, Paul, to Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, for a hearing test.

Legion Women's Director Installs Local Officers

Installation of officers highlighted the meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Charles B. Yerger Post 471, American Legion, with the ceremony in charge of Mrs. Martha Haley, Eastern district director.

The newly-installed officers are: President, Miss Elmira Mauger; first vice-president, Mrs. Leonard Blazes; second vice-president, Mrs. Henry Zimmers; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Murray Crull; historian, Mrs. Elton Thompson; chaplain, Mrs. Purnell Renninger; and sergeant-at-arms, Miss Emma Heere.

Mrs. Haley spoke on the various duties of the committees and gave an interesting talk on the founding of the Legion, how the auxiliaries were formed and their purpose.

Mrs. Jean McKay, State president, has undertaken as her year's project the spending of $1000 on each veteran's hospital in the State. The money will be raised by the Pennsylvania auxiliaries by saving coupons. The local unit is urged to save coupons, box tops and labels for the project.

* * *

MRS. HALEY presented Mrs. Paul Knauer, immediate past president, with a past president's pin in recognition of her work. Mrs. Knauer thanked the members for their co-operation during the year, as well as all her committees.

Americanism, Mrs. Harry Mauger Jr.; child welfare, Mrs. Walter Erb; community service, Mrs. Leonard Blazes; constitution and by-laws, Mrs. Murrell McKinstry; coupons, Mrs. Elton Thompson; education of orphans of veterans, Mrs. Charles Edinger.

Also Mrs. Vincent Floyd, legislation; Mrs. Lawrence Kohler, membership; Mrs. George Stauffer, music; Mrs. Clarence Muthard, national security; Mrs. Ralph Dotterer, pan-Americanism; Mrs. Murray Crull, poppies; Mrs. Purnell Renninger, press publications; Mrs. Ernest Weidner, radio; and Mrs. Paul Knauer, rehabilitation.

The members voted to completely furnish a kitchen in the new Legion home which will be built in the near future on South Reading avenue. Various fund raising projects were discussed.

Auxiliary members will keep the local Hallowe'en parade committee at the refreshment stand next Tuesday night.

Mrs. Murray Crull presented a report on the recent president-secretaries' conference held at Harrisburg.

* * *

THE MEMBERS voted to donate $12. as spending money for their adopted orphan, Joseph Murphy, at Scotland schools.

The next meeting of the auxiliary Tuesday, Nov. 14, will be in charge of the membership chairman, Mrs. Lawrence Kohler.

November will be observed as membership month all members are urged to pay their dues sometime during that period.

The Nov. 24th meeting originally scheduled for 8 o'clock has been changed to 7 o'clock, because of an already scheduled fashion show to be presented by the auxiliary of St. Joseph's hospital.

The next meeting of the Berks-Schuylkill council will be held Wednesday at 11 o'clock a. m. at Shillington.

Following the meeting, a chicken pattie dinner was served by the social committee consisting of Mrs. George Stauffer, Mrs. Walter Erb, Mrs. Ernest Weidner and Mrs. Murrell McKinstry.

Sabbath School Assn. Will Conduct Fall Convention in Oley

An all-day session of the Fall convention of the Fourth district of the Berks County Sabbath School association will be held Saturday in Friedens Union church, Oley.

Registration is scheduled for 2:30 p. m. with afternoon sessions starting at 3 o'clock in charge of Charles Rhoads, vice president, Amityville. The opening devotions will be conducted by the Rev. Earl G. Wolford, pastor of Friedens Reformed church.

The business session will be conducted by Jesse H. Mercer, president of the Fourth district, of 31 West Fifth street. This will include various reports, divisional conferences, report of the nominating committee and election of officers

A fellowship supper will be held at 5:30 p. m., followed by the showing of a film, "Family Life."

The evening session, starting at 7:30 o'clock, and in charge of Mercer, will include special music, presentation of county officers and district presidents, a message by the Rev. Dean Allen, pastor of St. Matthew Evangelical United Brethren, Reading, and installation of the newly-elected officers.

CLAY RETURNS TO U. S.

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 25 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, former American Military governor for Germany, left tonight by air for the U. S. after a three-day visit to Allied-occupied Berlin and Western Germany.

Girl Scouts Invest Four New Members

New members were invested and badges presented at the meeting of Girl Scout Troop 83 in the Odd Fellows hall.

The girls invested: Barbara Brooke, Rochelle Rhoads, Carol R. Wasley and Barbara Frain.

Those receiving second class badges: Martha Lee Koons, Sandra Briel, Ruth Briggs, Lucille Graham, Sue Ann Losh, Dolores Guldin, Marjorie Barr, Marlene Webster, Barbara Brooke, Frances Henry, Doris Spohn and Mary Stahl. Sandra Briel, Martha Lee Koons, Barbara Brooke and Doris Spohn received proficiency badges in sewing.

A tea was conducted in charge of Barbara Brooke, Martha Lee Koons, Lucille Graham and Marjorie Barr. The girls planned, prepared and served the refreshments.

Mrs. Helen C. Dillon was in charge, assisted by Mrs. M. Briggs.

* * *

BROWNIE TROOP 14 met in the Odd Fellows hall and practiced the hymn they will sing on Sunday in church.

The members wrapped Christmas gifts for the box they will send to the German boy adopted by the sponsoring organization.

The troop received an American flag from the local Legion post and the members used their new troop flag for the first time.

Mrs. Guy Briel and Mrs. Gordon Rose were in charge.

* * *

A HALLOWE'EN party was held by members of Girl Scout Troop 11 at the home of the leader, Mrs. Martha Fulmer, on South Reading avenue.

Visitors included Mrs. Caroline Schanley, Mrs. Sadie Irey and Mrs. John Lefever.

Mrs. Fulmer was assisted by the Misses Grace Lefever and Flora Reitnauer.

29 Attend Party Held By Local VFW Women

Twenty-nine members attended the annual Hallowe'en party of the Ladies' auxiliary of Boyertown Post 3487, VFW, in the VFW home on South Chestnut street. Games were played and prizes awarded.

A luncheon was served.

Program Is Arranged For Reformed Class

The program of the Young Adult Bible class of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed Sunday school, for Sunday morning at 9 o'clock includes a piano solo by Warren A. Hohl, organist and choir director of the church.

Miriam Youse will be in charge of the devotional reading. Esther Youse will lead the class in a prayer.

The lesson discussion will be led by the class teacher, Robert Fleming.

Many bath sponges are made of luffa gourd fibre.

Lutheran Church To Further Honor Charter Members

Royersford Grace Lutheran church, which honored three charter members at the 60th Anniversary service the past Sunday morning, will bestow further honors at the Sunday School Anniversary service Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock.

The past Sunday gold crosses were presented by the Rev. Paul J. Henry, pastor, to Mrs. U. S. G. Finkbiner, Mrs. Chester Rogers and Mrs. Ada Schrack, all of whom were on the first list of members when Grace congregation was organized in 1890.

Mrs. Finkbiner has been an officer and teacher in Grace Sunday school during its entire history of 60 years. She played the organ at the first session of the school and has never ceased to be active in the work.

Mrs. Emma Collins has been pianist in various departments of the school for 52 years. Both will be presented with a gift marking their more than 50 years of service.

Others who have served more than 25 years will be presented with a suitable memento. That list includes:

John Schrack, 42 years; H. Elmer Schrack, 42 years; Arline Winter, 35 years; N. A. Yerger and Mrs. James Newborn, 32 years; Mrs. Warren Leighton, 31 years; Mrs. Harry Frederick, 30 years, and Mrs. Esther Cook, 29 years.

Judge James F. Henninger, president judge of Lehigh county courts, will be the speaker at Sunday's service.

C. W. Freyer Dies In Nursing Home

Christian W. Freyer, 87, of 415 Arch street, Spring City, former banker and school district secretary, died in Crowder Nursing home, Kimberton road, near Phoenixville, yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock, of general infirmities due to his advanced age.

Mr. Freyer had been a patient in Phoenixville hospital for a month, until he was removed to the Crowder home Monday.

A resident of Spring City nearly all his life, Mr. Freyer pursued a busy career until his retirement in 1927. For 40 years he was employed as cashier by the National Bank and Trust company of Spring City.

For several decades he also served as treasurer of Spring City school board and was one of the leading factors in planning the junior-senior high school building.

He also was a member of Spring City First Evangelical and Reformed church and formerly served as a consistoryman. His only fraternal affiliation was with Lafayette Castle 59, Knights of the Golden Eagle, Royersford.

Mr. Freyer's wife, Nellie (Vanderslice) Freyer, died here in 1916. The couple's only daughter, Trinna Freyer Moser, former high school teacher, died in 1945, leaving as his only survivor a grandson, Dr. Christian E. Moser, with whom Mr. Freyer lived at the Arch street address.

Services will be conducted Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in a funeral home at 331 New street, with interment in Fernwood cemetery.

93d Birthday Celebrated By Royersford Woman

Mrs. Catherine Reed, believed to be the oldest resident of Royersford, celebrated her 93d birthday anniversary Tuesday, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Nelson, 652 Main street, with whom she makes her home.

Beside five of her seven children living, Mrs. Reed has 13 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. She is a faithful member of St. Luke's Evangelical and Reformed church, Trappe.

Odd Fellows to Receive Reservations for Trip

Vincent Lodge 762, IOOF, will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Odd Fellows temple, Spring City.

During the session reservations will be received for a trip to Middletown Aged home Nov. 12. The Rev. Robert W. Roschy, Lancaster, former pastor of St. Vincent Reformed church, will be the speaker, and the Rentschler sisters, Spring City, will provide special music at the service. William Rose, George I. Lent and G. Everett Leighton are on the committee for reservations.

Rev. Baer Returned To Local Churches

The Rev. Paul E. Baer was returned to Royersford and Spring City for his fifth year of ministry, as announced at the Mennonite Brethren in Christ annual conference held in its Bethlehem church building.

The local churches have given, throughout the year, more than $13,000, which includes almost $3000 for missions, and exactly $1297.52 for the new Berean Bible school, sponsored by the Mennonite Brethren in Christ conference. The school holds its sessions daily at Allentown.

A former local boy, the Rev. Jansen E. Hartman, was recently elected president of this Bible school, and at sessions held at the Bethlehem conference he was elected director of Home missions. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hartman, 235 Myrtle street, Royersford. Besides leading the school, his duties call him to direct the church missions in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Robert Hunter, Spring City, was admitted to Phoenixville hospital.

Mrs. Frank Devlin, and Penrose Walters, Royersford, were discharged.

DEATHS - FUNERALS

Services for HORACE BORTMAN, 407 QUEEN STREET, SPRING CITY, were conducted in a funeral home at 331 New street yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Paul E. Baer, pastor of the Mennonite Brethren in Christ church.

Interment was made in Vincent Mennonite cemetery. Bearers were Philip Worsnup Sr., Philip Worsnup Jr., James Worsnup, Charles Knox, Townsend Christman and Oliver Sheeder.

Prosecution Is Promised Spring City Pranksters

Hallowe'en pranksters who carry a joke too far will be in for a tough time, if they ignore warnings in Spring City.

Promising prosecution to the full extent of the law of all violators apprehended, Burgess Benjamin F. Bertolet issued a warning to all persons to refrain from damaging property, soaping cars and windows, removing property from its location and deflating auto tires.

Referring to deflating of auto tires, the burgess termed the situation serious as he took steps to afford protection to motorists, particularly during the Hallowe'en season.

40-Mile Hay Ride Held By Den 4 Cub Scouts

Cub Scouts of Den 4, Troop 232, Royersford, recently enjoyed a hay ride of approximately 40 miles through Chester county for three hours, stopping off at a barbecue stand in Bucktown for refreshments.

In the group were Harry Meitzler, Terry Skeen, Robert Schad, Herbert Shivers, Harry and Earl Brungess, Cubmaster and Mrs. Harold Yerington and son, David; Mrs. Fred Schad, den mother, and daughter, Sandra; Den chief Eugene Bergstresser, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bergstresser, Patricia and Mary Alice Bergstresser, Ralph Meitzler, Mrs. Ann Skeen and daughter, Carol, and Mrs. Hebert G. Shivers Sr.

'Ford Newlyweds Given Shower at Brunner Home

A shower was given for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Seeley, recently wedded couple, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brunner, 762 Church street, Royersford, parents of Mrs. Seeley, the former Phyllis Brunner. Upwards of 50 guests attended.

The table centerpiece was arranged in the form of an umbrella suspended from the ceiling with white streamers, to which gifts for the couple were attached. Refreshments were served.

Furloughed Missionary Addresses Local Group

The Woman's Society of Christian Service, of Spring City Methodist church, on Tuesday night heard Miss Mary Bugby, a Methodist missionary home on furlough from India. Colored slides of her work were shown as well as curios.

WSCS members of Phoenixville Methodist church, who attended, presented to the local society a huge birthday cake with ten candles, significant of the tenth anniversary of the organization.

During the program, short talks were given by Mrs. Luther Blauser, spiritual life secretary; Mrs. Ivin Young, program chairman, and Mrs. Edward Ottinger, president of the local society. Special music was provided by a double quartet of the church choir, and vocal solos by Mrs. Raymond Reid and Mrs. Emmett Diemer.

Test plots of safflower have yielded up to 3600 pounds of seed per acre.

Robbery Proves to Be Several Youths at Play

An attempted robbery at Edwards Sporting Goods store, 171 Main street, Royersford, proved to be the result of several boys at play in a vacant room above. One of the boys fell through the ceiling to the floor of the sporting goods store.

The odd situation was discovered by Louis Ottaviano, owner, who found fallen plaster on the floor when he opened for business. Although he failed to discover anything had been taken, he felt sure he was the victim of would-be burglars and reported to Police Chief Bryson Turner.

After questioning a lad in school, he obtained a confession that a group of 'teen-agers had been playing in the second floor room and one dropped through to the floor of the store. He was not injured.

Kids Face Crackdown For Pea Shooter Use

The city council today passed an ordinance imposing a $25 fine for use, sale or possession of the devices.

King George Shrugs Off Fatal Tradition With Visit to New House of Commons

LONDON, Oct. 25 (AP)—King George VI trod watchfully today through the new stone and oak House of Commons building and left 50 minutes later with his head still on his shoulders.

The last king who had the nerve to enter the House of Commons, Charles I, was beheaded. But the circumstances in the two cases differed. For one thing, the new building won't officially become the House of Commons until tomorrow.

King Charles the First, a tyrant, visited the Commons 308 years ago to arrest leaders of the opposition. This started a revolution and Charles was beheaded by Oliver Cromwell.

King George was just looking. He came to see the brand new lawmaking chamber, to which his dominions overseas have contributed furnishings.

Today was his last chance for an inspection without defying the constitution. Tomorrow the new building will be turned over to the Commons and become forbidden ground for the man with the crown.

Charles had come with a squad of soldiers. George brought his plump wife, Queen Elizabeth, dressed in a deep lilac colored dress, and his dignified old mother, Queen Mary.

* * *

OFFICIALLY IT wasn't even a royal party—just a distinguished stranger in a gray overcoat and derby hat, accompanied by two ladies.

Buckingham palace spokesmen said the King had gone to the building "on a purely private visit."

In his tour, George had no time to see many of the new things in the new building.

Queen Elizabeth sat dow. on the leather-covered foam rubber benches on the Labor government's side of the House. She appeared to find them comfortable—but her comment went unreported.

The royal family was highly interested in the air conditioning system. Another thing that caught their eyes was the "Churchill arch." It's a ragged old Gothic archway spanning the passage between the lobby and the chamber. It was built of battered gray stones salvaged from the wreckage of the old chamber.

The old building was smashed by German bombs in May, 1941. The arch's name makes it an enduring memorial to wartime Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

The new house is built on the same cramped space as the old one, but better use of the space has made room for two floors of offices the old building didn't have.

The lawmakers themselves are still cramped. There are 625 of them—but seats for only little more than half.

Meetings will be held every other Tuesday. The next meeting will be Nov. 7 at 8 p. m. Canasta will be played.

Gay Glitter Preview Given at Luncheon By Mrs. Kessler

A luncheon sparkling with gaiety and exotic jewelry which elicited exclamations of awe and delight was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Kessler, 12 Maplewood drive, director of and producer of the forthcoming Gay Glitter pageant.

The 40 guests who attended were models and members of the committees for the extrvaganza which will be held Nov. 8, at Sunnybrook ballroom.

An excitign display of jewelry, which will be worn in the show, was previewed by the guests making each model restless to know what she was going to wear. The exquisitely designed rhinestones, pearls, and gold pieces, graciously twisted into a variety of forms, created by top-notch New York designers were simply breath-taking.

Mrs. Kessler revealed plans for what appears will be a spectacular Gay Glitter event with fashions, jewelry and perfumes basking in a mystic oriental setting.

This year the theme will be the "olden days of the Far East." Decorations will be in keeping with the theme and a pageant of fantasy will be narrated by Mrs. Kessler.

A buffet luncheon was served and guests received miniature jeweled pen and pencil sets which were brought into the room on the back of an elephant, a prop, of course.

The pint-sized pachyderm sprinkled with jewels, is a member of the prop cast which will be one of many decorations on stage carrying out the Oriental theme.

Again, there will be a unique finale with a full cast on hand, moving against a background of music.

The show is presented by Mrs. Kessler in conjunction with the Memorial hospital auxiliary and the proceeds will go to the hospital.

Mrs. Moore Uses Daughter's Recipes For Delicious Apple Holiday Desserts

By GRANNY HIGGINS

It's a slight turn-about move when daughter gives mother a recipe. But that's the way it is with Mrs. George Moore, of Hanover and Water streets, who has followed her daughter's directions for several delicious desserts.

The daughter, Mrs. William Harvey, of Berwick, it seems has more time to experiment around the kitchen than mother who spends the better part of her day teaching school.

Having raised five children, Mrs. Moore knows that about this time when the holidays draw near, the family looks forward to something delectable in the way of dessert. The answer for her family, Mrs. Moore says, is apple sauce cake or apple sauce pudding.

Both of these recipes have been tried and tested during many a holiday in the Moore home, are simple to make and delicious to take.

* * *

Apple Sauce Cake

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1½ tsp. double acting baking powder
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
½ tsp. nutmeg
½ tsp. cloves
1½ cup apple sauce
1 egg
½ cup chopped nuts
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup brown sugar packed firmly
½ cup shortening

Sift dry ingredients together. Mix nuts and raisins with 1 tablespoon of the sifted dry ingredients. Cream shortening with granulated sugar and brown sugar. Cream well. Blend in egg and mix thoroughly adding sifted dry ingredients and apple sauce alternately. Blend in nuts and raisins and mix. Pour into lightly greased and floured pans. Bake in a 350 degree oven 45 to 50 minutes.

Serve cake with ice cream or whipped cream if desired.

* * *

Apple Pudding

Peaches can be used instead of apples if preferred.

A dish of sliced apples
1 pound butter
½ cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup all purpose flour sifted
½ cup sweet milk
1 tablespoon baking powder

Mix dry ingredients together. Add butter and milk and beat batter. Pour over dish of apples and bake in a 350 oven for 25 to 30 minutes.

Note: If you'd like to make a guest appearance in this column, just drop a line to Granny Higgins of The Mercury about your favorite recipe.

Party Plans Completed By Coventry PTA Group

Plans were completed for a Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening when the executive board of the East Coventry Parent-Teachers association held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Raymond Miller, Parkerford.

The masked affair will be held at the school tomorrow night.

Reports were given by the following dance committee chairmen: Mrs. Arthur Irwin, country store and cake table; Mrs. Ross Spera, refreshments, and Miss Elizabeth Demeter, decorations.

Mrs. Miller announced that the November PTA meeting program would be a book review by Mrs. George Emery, Spring City.

Mrs. Wilbur Rinehart, president, presided. Refreshments were served after the business session.

And a Wee Bit of This

Mrs. George Moore adds a dash of the sifted dry ingredients in her cup as she prepares a batter for apple sauce cake. Contrary to many cooks who use a pinch of this and a drop of that to bake a cake Mrs. Moore uses exact measurement as shown in her recipe.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

BUDDY LESTER, taken for a cleaning at a western gambling joint, is not sure that the black-jack game in which he participated was exactly on the level. In fact, he voiced his suspicions to a policeman outside the premises. "The cop came over the moment I called," recalls Lester. "He listened to my squawk and asked, 'Are you trying to tell me they deal cards off the bottom in there?' I answered 'I'm not saying that exactly — but I noticed the top card had dust on it.'"

Gus Eysell, in charge of the mammoth Radio City Music Hall, has conducted all kinds and nationalities through the mazes of the institution, and usually knows in advance just how they are going to react to the vast auditorium, the complex lighting system, the orchestra that comes up on a platform from the cellar, and the marvelously trained Rockettes. One visitor that stopped him cold, however, was a farmer who never had been to New York before. He never batted an eye during the tour, and spoke for the first time when he gazed up at the balcony from the center stage. What he said was, "This place sure would hold a lot of hay."

"You did what?" asked the father.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

More Entries Needed In Industrial League

Efforts to establish an industrial basketball league in Pottstown struck a snag last night when only four teams were represented at the first meeting of the proposed new league at the Junior High.

Francis Donnon, director of the city Recreation commission, under whose sponsorship the league was to be assembled, announced that a goal of six teams has been set. He added, however, that it might be possible to plan a five-team league.

Under rules of the proposed league, players must be employed by the industries they represent. Teams using players not employed by the sponsor would be eligible for play only in the city league.

At the first meeting, representatives from URW, UAW, Flaggs and USA 2177 of Bethlehem Steel indicated willingness to enter units in the industrial circuit. Donnon said that Doehlers officials had indicated that a team would be floored from that plant should a strict industrial setup be organized.

* * *

DONNON HAS established Wednesday of next week as the last possible day for entries in the Industrial league. Any plants interested in entering a team in the loop have been asked to send representative either to Donnon or Gene Kauler, who will direct the league.

Six representatives turned up to enter teams in the City league last night, indicating that the circuit will be as strong as ever, despite the withdrawal of the Erntex Knitters, who will be playing in the Main Line league.

Represented were The Boys, Transfiguration AA, J. Fegely and Sons, Three Crowns, VFW and Amole Post 47 of the American Legion.

Missing from the 1949 league were the Amvets, Club Century and Bell AA.

Representatives of URW, and USA 2177 said that their teams would be ready to enter the City league in event the industrial league is not formed.

In the latter event, it is probable that the league will be divided into an A and B bracket as in the past. The division would spot stronger teams in the upper bracket with aim at evening competition.

In 1949, The Boys won the B division, while Erntex trimmed Three Crowns in the A playoffs.

Next league meeting has been set for Thursday night at the Junior High. At that meeting both leagues or two brackets of the City league will be formed.

Practice sessions are scheduled to begin within the next few weeks in official opening of the league set either the last week of November or first of December.

Trojan 3rds, Hill Fourths Play 6-6 Tie

Hill Fourths uncorked a baffling passing attack in the third period to drive 65 yards to a score-knotting touchdown that enabled them to deadlock Pottstown High's jayvee reserves, 6-6, yesterday at the Far fields.

Pottstown had shoved over a TD in the second period and was enjoying much the better of play until the Fourths went to the air. Pitcher Alex Bhuler completed three straight passes that gobbled the entire 65 yards. His last effort was a 20-yarder to Captain Waldo Allen, who took it in on the 15 and ran across unmolested.

Bhuler attempted to crack tackle for the extra point, but was stopped dead at the lnie of scrimmage.

* * *

THE TROJAN thirds, guided by the piston-action legs of little Alex Czarick, ran at will in the opening half, but bogged badly once Hill had scored the deadlocker.

Czarick teamed with Rube Gauger and Lefty Peterson on a 60-yard drive to Hill's ten-yard line in the second period. From there, little Alex streaked over on an off-tackle play.

Pottstown enjoyed a 12-7 first down edge and ran 160 yards to 51 for the Blue. In the air, however, Hill outgained Pottstown 93-0, on five completions in eight tries.

Trojanettes, Eaglets Vie

With two tiffs standing between them and an unbeaten season, Pottstown High's girls hockey team journeys to Norristown this afternoon for a 2:30 engagement with the hosts.

The Trojanettes have won four, tied one, in their inaugural season under the tutelage of Mrs. Marion Treivel, and must meet only Upper Merion Nov. 1 following the battle in the County seat today.

Pottstown likely will be forced to play without the services of Peg Himes, who suffered a sprained wrist in practice yesterday. Miss Himes had just begun to sparkle. She scored all three goals when the Trojanettes trimmed West Pottsgrove, 3-1, on Monday.

Charles Planning One-a-Month Belt Defense Program

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25 (AP)—World heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles plans a one-a-month title defense campaign next year that may start at San Francisco with Joey Maxim.

Jake Mintz, Charles' co-manager, said today he is giving "serious consideration" to an offer from William P. Kynes that would match the Cincinnati Negro and Maxim in the Golden Gate's Kezar Stadium on February 22.

Mintz said Kynes has wired him a $100,000 guarantee offer for the West Coast scrap.

Charles' manager says that if the Maxim fight is arranged, Charles probably will go to Honolulu the next month for title fight with Tony Bosnizh.

Lions End Sues Club

DETROIT, Oct. 25 (AP)—Al Russas, 25-year-old former Tennessee end, filed a $10,000 damage suit in federal court today against the Detroit Lions. He charged that the Detroit Football co., owner of the Lions, violated National Football league by-laws by asking waivers on him before he had recovered from injuries.

Ford Hockey 11 To Face Alumni Team Saturday

The Alumni eleven, captained by Regina Sweeney, will be meeting a team that has beaten Schwenkville, 2-0, while losing, 1-0, to East Greenville, and tieing Boyertown and Spring City.

The starters for Miss Margaret Halladay's schoolgirls include Dolly Leonhart, Janet Hunsberger, Sally Craft, Elizabeth Giaquinta, Janice Worsnup, Teresa Bizzarri, Hannah Stoudt, Jeanne Newborn, Lydia Reed, Peg Fleming, and Judy Reinmuth. The substitutes are Mary Alexander, Faye Horner, Mary Undercoffler, Patsy Reppert, Betty Buzzar, Mary Krasley and Eleanor Oesterlie.

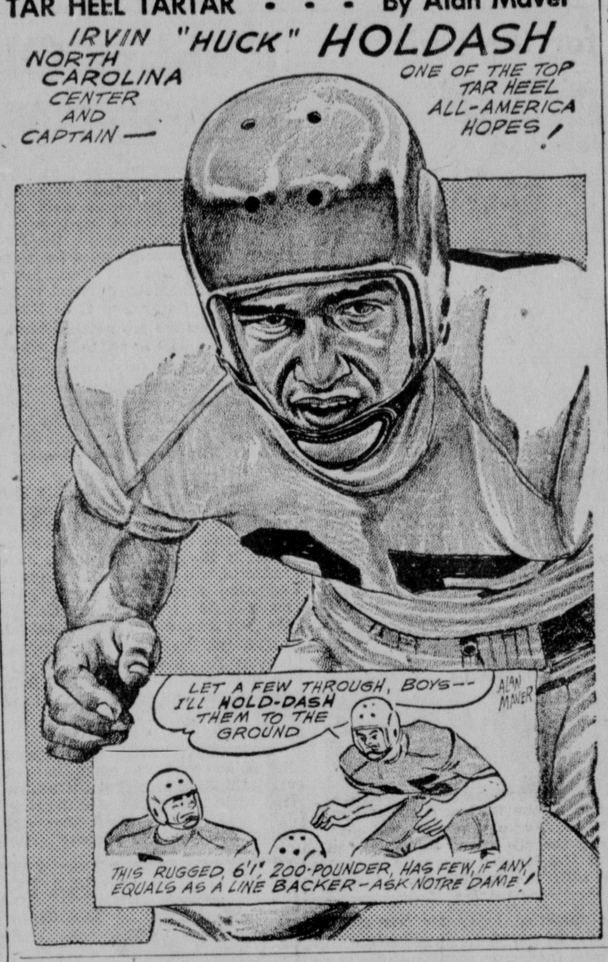

Electronic Device To Follow Carrier

SYRACUSE, Oct. 25 (AP)—A new electronic device to point out the ball carrier during televised football games was described by the General Electric company.

Because of complicated plays in which two or more backs frequently handle the ball, GE noted that sometimes it is difficult for television fans to follow the play.

With the "electronic pointer," GE said a commentator could superimpose a black or white pointer at any spot on the viewer's television screen.

At Long Last, Ursinus Plays Favorites' Role

Many a day has come and gone since an Ursinus college football team has stepped onto the turf wearing the mantle of a favored team, but on Saturday Coach Ray Gurzynski's surprising Bears will be the choice to wallop Wagner at Staten Island, New York.

This in spite of the fact that the Bruins have won but one of four games this year.

The strange turn of events came about after Ursinus rose up to thrash Swarthmore, 35-14, the past weekend in a mild upset at Collegeville. There were partisans who held out hope that the Bears would nick the Garnet before a homecoming crowd, but the wildest dreamer never expected to see Ursinus chalk up 35 points in this era.

This week's foe has suffered a disastrous season to date, having lost to lowly Susquehanna and Swarthmore in recent engagements. However, the Seahawks last week trimmed CCNY by a 14-0 count in New York.

History at least favors the hosts. In 1949 Wagner pinned a 34-6 defeat on Ursinus and the year before it was 23-6, Wagner.

* * *

MUCH PLEASED with the performance of the entire squad in the Swarthmore game, the Ursinus coaching staff was especially impressed by the game turned in by big Swett. Towering six-foot eight, Swett ranks as one of the country's tallest gridders.

Saturday, the young sophmore demonstrated with his pass-nabbing that he may develop into one of the finest ends in recent Ursinus history.

Another lad who drew praise from his coaches was pint-sized Don Young, but that was no real surprise. Young, a 150-pound quarterback and team captain, returned to combat after missing two games with a shoulder separation and promptly rattled off two touchdowns, intercepted two passes and made several score-saving tackles.

With Young intact and Swett a constant pass-receiving threat, the Bruins may trot out their first concentrated aerial barrage of the year Saturday. Besides the Young-Swett combine, Ursinus boasts a steady scoring menace in the passing of Gene Glick and the receiving of Dick Glock. That pair accounted for three of Ursinus' first four markers this year.

A Trick for a Trick

Trojans Pin Hopes on Deception

Trojan coach Heeb Meyers is scheming to meet fire with fire when Berwyn High invades Saturday afternoon for a Chesmont league scrape on Franklin field.

Fully aware that the Berwyn attack is about as deceptive a plan as the Trojans will see all year, Meyers has shaken some aces from his own sleeve in effort to fool the foe.

Yesterday, two Trojan teams, one representing Berwyn, sweated through prolonged scrimmage drills, and the show they put on was something to see. Line Coach Morrie Grigg equipped the seconds with Berwyn plays and for a time they rambled at will against the regulars.

However, once the frontliners got the hang of things, it was a different story. They blunted drive after drive and opened a trick sack of their own.

Indications are that Pottstown will play a brand of ball Saturday heretofore untried. The new attack features more passing, some lateral plays and more direct-pass-to-the-fullback plays. The latter is being tried with hopes of utilizing Sam Green more now that it is realized that Greenie represents over 50 percent of the Trojan attack.

* * *

LITTLE DICK POWELL, jayvee signal-caller, was given the reins of the No. 1 team for substantial time yesterday giving rise to the expectation that he may be used frequently on Saturday.

One other change in the probable starting lineup was more or less made a certainty yesterday when Grigg revealed that he plans to start big Jim Petrucelli at right guard.

If the 200-pound Senior takes over the slot, it will mark the first starting appearance of his career. He was counted upon for considerable play at the beginning of the season, but his coaches felt that he lacked the savagery that makes for good line play. However, in a recent jayvee skirmish with West Chester, Petrucelli was a solid citizen in a line that was not trespassed. It could be that he earned his spurs in that test.

* * *

BERWYN'S unbeaten Bulldogs are spearheaded by little Scat Collins, described as the fanciest open-field runner Pottstown will face all year.

Collins has been getting his best help from husky Bob Dellapenna, a sub fullback until recently, who has shown to good advantage against Upper Merion and Coatesville.

The Bulldogs employ the winged-T, a formation once taught by Meyers at Pottstown, and run many reverse and "bootleg" plays. They were particularly successful against Upper Merion with the latter play that is set up in sequence and sends the quarterback off on a virtually naked end sweep.

For Berwyn, a victory Saturday is necessary if it is to continue its drive toward the Chesmont flag. Currently the Bulldogs and Phoenixville are the only undefeated units in the loop. They will meet on Nov. 11 at Berwyn.

Sell-Perk Poses Wing-T Problem For Royersford

Never one to underestimate a foe, Coach Bob McNelly of Royersford expects genuine trouble tomorrow night when he sends his Royersford High Eagles against Sellersville-Perkasie under the arcs on the foe field.

It is not that Sell-Perk has been ripping apart a flock of top notchers. Indeed, the Indians have won but two of five scraps, but they are offensive-minded and run from a winged-T, a formation that can be dangerous in any hands.

Royersford invades with a clean, five-game slate, including one nocturnal victory. But McNelly wants no part of another fracas like the one night time test he has had. In that one, the Eagles plucked off a 20-19 victory over Shillington, but had to erase a 19-6 deficit to do it.

The Eagles should be at top condition for the brawl. Backs Jack Krasley and Paul Fairheller, both missing in the Schwenkville test, are ready to go, as is Ebert Evans, big guard who suffered a mashed nose early in the season.

McNelly has a double purpose tomorrow. He is gunning to tug his team through on top and without injury if possible. Any injury to key men could have serious consequences in that the Eagles must meet East Greenville next week in a key Perk league tiff.

DiMag Ready to Talk Contract With Yanks

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23 (AP)—Joe DiMaggio isn't thinking of retiring from baseball. At least not right now, reports and speculation to the contrary notwithstanding. The Yankee Clipper, in fact, is ready to talk 1951 contract terms with his bosses any time. He doesn't expect to hear anything on this subject, however, earlier than next month.

SMU Boasts Best Reserve Strength

DALLAS, Oct. 25 (AP)—Southern Methodist may not have its greatest football strength in history but it certainly has its greatest reserve strength, says Matty Bell, the man who coached SMU's Rose Bowl team in 1936 and its Cotton Bowl teams of 1948 and 1949.

Bell, now athletic director of the school, surveyed the nation's No. 1 team today and declined to pick it as the best ever to play on the Hilltop. But he didn't say it wasn't.

"It is a fine football team, versatile, smart and with the best replacements I ever saw out here," declared the man who brought SMU to the top as a gate attraction.

Coach H. N. (Rusty) Russell, of course, wouldn't claim his team was the best but he did say: "It's the greatest college team I ever coached."

Then he grinned: "I am safe in that you know, since it is the first one."

Boyertown Set For Speedboys

Boyertown High began tapering off yesterday for an important engagement with Shillington High tomorrow night under the lights of Albright Stadium, Reading.

The Bears, whose Berks County league title hopes were rudely jolted by Wilson High the past Saturday, must win tomorrow to keep their record above the .500 mark.

Shillington's Speedboys will pose a major test for the Bears after having extended Royersford of the Perk league, 19-20, earlier in the year.

Coach Bob Fleming is hoping that his all-star running corps of Gene Rothenberger, Dick Yergey, Bob Magee, George Unger and Os Koons will offset the brilliant aerial attack of the Speedboys.

Grid Guesses

PHS, Norco, WP Picked to Sink

By JOE MUCH

It wasn't a fit day out for favored football teams last Saturday when upsetters ranged and ruled across country. What they did to our average shouldn't happen. In all we managed 68 true guesses, 28 clean misses and six ties for a .708 average. On the year, it is 276 bullseyes, 97 wrong for a .740 mark.

Upcoming games promise more upsets both on high school and college levels. And upsets are on this menu as we look first to the scholastic card:

SPRING CITY over NORCO: Annually a whingding, and this is no exception, but the Pirates still hold the edge.

SCHWENKVILLE over WEST POTTSGROVE: A coin job.

ROYERSFORD over SELL-PERK: Another nocturnal victory for the Eagles, who would like to sail into East Greenville unbeaten on Nov. 4.

SHILLINGTON over BOYERTOWN: The Bears are due to rebound, but the Speedboys have too much in this Albright stadium classic.

Others of interest in nearby areas:

MOVING INTO the colleges:

OHIO STATE over IOWA: The Buckeyes, coming back the hard way, are enroute to Big Ten title.

ARMY over COLUMBIA: A drill session for the Cadets.

WASHINGTON over STANFORD: Two rebounding units. Boinng.

NOTRE DAME over MICHIGAN STATE: Bad year for the Irish, but they never are down on successive weekends.

WISCONSIN over NORTHWESTERN: Another win streak whoaed.

Costa, NC State Tackle Is Named Week's Lineman

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—North Carolina State whipped Maryland, 16-13, in a major upset last Saturday. On the basis of his fine performance in that game, Elmer Costa, N. C. State tackle, was selected today as the Associated Press collegiate football Lineman of the Week.

A 225-pounder from Paterson, N. J., Costa pounced on a fumble early in the game to set up N. C. State's first touchdown, then led three goal line stands that thwarted Maryland's bid for victory.

His inspirational play drew raves from sports writers at the game as well as from Jim Tatum, Maryland coach.

Said big Jim: "Costa should be Lineman of the Week for his play against us."

Costa's own coach, Beattie Feathers, declared his big tackle "played one of the best games I've seen on any field. He was really smashing through there and breaking up Maryland plays."

Costa joins Elmer Stout, Army center; Jim Weatherall, Oklahoma tackle; and Irv Holdash, North Carolina center, as the 1950 winners to date of the coveted weekly lineman honor.

Gobrecht Holds Pa. Point Lead

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24 (AP)—The one touchdown Wilbur Gobrecht scored against Western Maryland last Saturday held first place in the Pennsylvania college individual scoring race for the Dickinson star.

Gobrecht has crossed into payoff territory eight times for a total of 48 points, a check of the figures revealed today.

Dan Parrell of Bloomburg's unbeaten Huskies, made the biggest gain. He scored three touchdowns to go into a second place tie with Art Arkelian, Gannon. Each has talliet 42 points, for a five point margin over Jack Heimbeucher, St. Vincent and Joe Gerencser, Moravian.

Leading scorers showing touchdowns, points after touchdowns, field goals and total points:

New Hand(s) for the Knicks

For years one of the outstanding stars of the Harlem Globetrotters, Nat "Sweetwater" Clifton, 6-foot 7-inch Negro cage ace, will play with the New York Knickerbockers in the pro league this year. In this picture, Coach Joe Lapchick of the Knicks gets quite a kick out of Nat's fancy stuff with the basketballs..

Costly Hit

ROME, Oct. 25 (AP)—Accused of "misbehaving on the field," Argentine soccer ace Dionisio Arce was disqualified today for five playing days by the National Soccer directorate. During an argument in a game Sunday, Arce hit the referee in the face with the ball.

Robby, Olson Collide For Pa. Middle Title

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25 (AP)—Ray (Sugar) Robinson, who says he's willing to fight anybody, defends his Pennsylvania version middleweight championship tomorrow night against another "nobody"—the only type fighter apparently willing to take a chance against him.

At least, Bobo Olson, the Swedish challenger who calls Hawaii his home, is a "nobody" until he beats somebody in Robinson's class. He's a nice looking kid, this Olson, but from the looks of things he'd surprise everybody, including himself, if he even puts a dent in the armor of the sure fisted Sugar Boy from Harlem.

It seems the top notches don't want any part of Robinson. The only guys willing to step in the ring with him are the kids shooting at the moon or the veterans trying to hold on for a living. Olson, a promising youngster, looks like the moon shooting variety.

Robinson is taking on his 13th opponent of the year as he keeps in shape in the hopes that someday, somewhere, the middleweight champion in the other 47 states, Jake LaMotta, will fight him for the title. Actually, Robinson doesn't have much hope of the latter. Neither does his manager, George Gainford.

The two were here for a final tuneup for tomorrow night's 15-round title bout against Olson. Both seemed more interested in LaMotta than Olson.

* * *

"JAKE CONVINCED the National Boxing association he means to fight us," said Gainford, "but I'll believe that when both boys are in the ring. Jake was arguing about the television deal for our supposed Feb. 14 fight with him the last time I heard.

I'm convinced that even if the fight's on down to the last few days, something will happen to Jake. He'll get himself hurt. That's happened before.

The Robinson-LaMotta feud led to Ray's being named 160-pound king in Pennsylvania. John (Ox) Da Grose, Pennsylvania state athletic commissioner vacated LaMotta's title and allowed Robinson to box France's Robert Villemain for the Pennsylvania version of the championship here last June.

Olson is a 22-year-old puncher who has won 49 of 52 professional fights, including 32 by knockout. This year he has won four bouts, losing only to the Australian champion, Dave Sands, in a close 12-round decision.

Olson says "I don't think Robinson can hit as hard as Sands and I chased him all over the ring in Australia a few months ago. If Ray doesn't get on his bike, I think I can lay him out."

Pro Net Tour Opens in NY

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Pancho Segura tries for pro tennis' brass ring tomorrow night when he faces smashing Jack Kramer in the opening match of their coast-to-coast whirl in Madison Square Garden.

At the same time, goregous Gussy Moran, the fancy pants gal from Santa Monica, Calif., makes her pro debut against Pauline Betz Addie, the former U.S. Amateur champion.

A crowd of around 13,000 may show in the Garden to watch Kramer and Segura match two of the net world's finest games while Gussy and Pauline vie in a style exhibition. The girls, however, claim they are going to display their best tennis, too.

Gussy is being cut in on one-third of the net profits of the tour being promoted by Bobby Riggs, the ex-champion.

Everyone's coming to know

The NEW BIG NAME in gasoline

All through the East these days, motorists are seeing more and more of the big red sign whose clean white letters call out "Calso." And more and more motorists are trying "Calso" in their own cars, and coming to know why "Calso" is the NEW BIG NAME in gasoline.

The good news now is that Calso Gasoline and its accompanying line of nationally famous RPM Motor Oils and Lubricants are now offered at all the stations we serve in this area. For many years it has been our policy to bring you the finest available petroleum products. That's why we've gone all the way now in our change-over to "Calso." Like many other forward-looking independent distributors, we've looked carefully at everything the industry has to offer—and have been convinced that there's nothing better we can sell, nothing better you can buy than Calso Gasoline.

First chance you get, drive in at your nearest "Calso" station. Get your tank filled—and see what you'll get: quickest starting, smoothest acceleration, most ping-free power, longest possible mileage . . . altogether the best possible performance. We believe that when you've given Calso Gasoline a thorough trial, you'll always make it a habit to stop at the big red sign.

Officers Are Elected By Boy Scout Troop 6

Richard Raugh was elected junior assistant scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 6, the highest scout-held office in the troop, at elections recently in the troop quarters in the rear of 62 High street.

Also elected were Bruce Missimer, senor patrol leader; Carl Kowalski, troop scribe; Ronald Baldasano, troop bugler, and Laverne Missimer, quartermaster.

Former Local Woman Injured at Pen Argyl

A former Pottstown woman, Bernice M. Hillpot, now a lieutenant in the Salvation Army stationed at Pen Argyl, near Easton, was injured yesterday in a fall down a flight of stairs at her home.

She was admitted to Easton hospital at 12:30 p. m. with a fracture of the left elbow. Her condition was "good." She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hillpot Sr., 506 West Buttonwood street, Penn Village.

Couple Obtains Divorce After 35 Years, 17 Kids

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 25 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Harland Greenfield have gotten a divorce after 35 years of marriage and 17 children.

Circuit Judge Decatur H. Rodgers entered the decree for Mrs. Greenfield yesterday. The order showed all but three of the children are now self-supporting. Mrs. Greenfield received custody of the three and the husband was directed to pay her $20 a month.

Greenfield operates a truck farm near Martinsburg.

A local court custom leaves all the papers but the decree under seal and it does not show the grounds for divorce.
